

A distinguished study of American theological education as embodied in the School's 100-year history in Cambridge, Mass. Includes colorful background material on Virginia Seminary, Bexley Hall, and General Theological Seminary. This memorable study re-creates an important but little-explored chapter in American history.

THE PREACHING OF CHRYSOSTOM

*edited and with an introduction
by Jaroslav Pelikan*

One of the world's foremost church historians here presents an important series of sermons by John Chrysostom, "the Golden Mouthed" preacher of the fourth century, together with an introduction that will greatly aid preachers and students committed to the careful and critical study of the pulpit masters of all generations of Christian history. Pelikan's essay includes six elements: the study of the history of preaching, a biographical description of Chrysostom, a study of Chrysostom as an exegete of the school of Antioch, a study of Chrysostom as a rhetorician, and an evaluation of Chrysostom as an expositor of the Sermon on the Mount. In a remarkable way this volume illuminates the present task of preaching and strengthens the firm anchorage of authentic preaching in the whole history and tradition of the church.

CONSIDER...

THE SYSTEM AND THE GOSPEL:
A Critique of Paul Tillich. Kenneth Hamilton. The first book-length assessment of the system. Tribute is paid to the power and scope of Tillich's thought, although his system is termed ultimately "incompatible with the Christian gospel."

Paper, $2.65

CHRISTIANITY AND THE AFFLUENT SOCIETY:

Reginald H. Fuller & Brian K. Rice. The biblical attitude to wealth and prosperity is the yardstick by which the authors measure today's society, its premises, goals and achievements. Their substantial critique is then viewed in the context of eternity.

Cloth, $3.95 Paper, $2.45

SERVICE IN CHRIST:

Essays Presented to Karl Barth on his 80th Birthday. T.H.L. Parker & James I. McCord. Several distinguished international scholars investigate the concept of Diakonia concerning its true Christian origins, historical evaluation, modern understanding and challenge to the contemporary church.

A Fellowship of Discontent

by HANS J. HILLERBRAND

The Divinity School, Duke University

The stories of five dissenting actors in the great drama of church history: Thomas Müntzer, Sebastian Franck, George Fox, Thomas Chubb, and David Friedrich Strauss.

"Fascinating . . . combines biography and theology with scholarship and human understanding. Dr. Hillerbrand skillfully and sensitively portrays the contributions of five 'outsiders' arrayed against the religious establishments of their times . . . alike in having deep religious convictions which they would not sacrifice. This book has contemporary as well as historical relevance."—CLYDE MANSCHRECK

"Done with a real flair . . . a general picture of the nature of theological and religious radicalism begins to emerge."—JAROSLAV PELIKAN

"With clear critical insight . . . illuminates the life and message of each character chosen . . . is written in easily readable and truly delightful style."—MATTHEW SPINKA $6.00
