

Index

- ‘Abbud, Ibrahim, 198
- ‘Alawi, Ahmed, 159
- ‘Allam, ‘Fouad, 48
- ‘Assal, Fathiya, 165
- ‘udu al-muaid (supporter member stage), 69
- ‘udu al-multazim (committed member stage), 69
- ‘udu al-muntassib (upstanding brother stage), 69
- ‘Umaal Taraheel (migrant workers), 80
- Ababa, Addis, 260
- abbans (clan-based credit systems), 231
- Abdel-Fadil, Mahmoud, 32
- Abgal subclan, 223
- Abu-Rawash, Wagih Abdelraziq, 167, 173
- ahali. See non-government (ahali) Mosques
- Ahl al-Sunna Wal Jama’a (People of the Sunna and the Community), 257
- Ahmad, ‘Abd Allah, 185
- Ahmad, Majdi Mahjoub Mohammad, xviii, 17
- AIAl. See al-Ittihad al-Islamic (AIAl)
- Aideed, General, 256, 259
- Aidid subclan, 223
- al-‘Eryan, ‘Issam, 53, 61, 171
- al-Atabani, Ghazi Salih al-Dein, 214
- Al-Ayyam newspaper, 122
- al-Banna, Hassan, 62
- Al-Baraka Group, 46
- Al-Baraka Investment and Development Company, 110
- al-Baraka Islamic bank, 109
- Al-Barakaat transfer agency, 128–129, 131, 136
- al-Bashir regime. See also Sudan
- authoritarianism decreasing by, 205–207
- coup by, 178
- legitimacy of, 203
- pragmatism of, 199
- radical Islamists and, 178–180
- struggle for political legitimacy by, 215
- uprising in 2018 against, 208–211
- Wanderers movement, 214–215
- al-Fadil, Abd, 42
- al-Faisal, Muhammad, 110, 111
- al-Ghazali, Abd al-hamid, 45, 47
- al-Ghazzali, Shaykh Mohammad, 44
- al-Haj, Ali, 123
- al-Hassan, Sabir Muhammad, 185
- al-Hudaybi, Hassan, 44
- Ali, Jabir Mohammed, 156
- Ali, Magdi Mahmoud, 24–25
- Ali, Mohamed, 269
- al-Ittihad al-Islami (AIAl)
- as political force, 259
- Ethiopia and, 257, 259
- hawwalat and, 136
- history of, 257–258
- recruitment, 258–259
- seen as terrorists, 255
- state building and, 245, 246
- UIC association with, 256
- al-Jabel, Waled, 185
- al-Jama’a al-Islamiyya. See Islamic Group (Egypt)
- al-Kamil, Shaykh Salih, 109
- Alliance for Restoration of Peace and Counter Terrorism, 260
- al-Mahdi, abd al Rahman, 96
- al-Mahdi, Sadiq, 126–127
- al-Mirghani, Ali, 96
- al-Nashra, 290
- al-Nimairi, J’afar, 100–102, 107–108, 111, 180, See also Sudan
- al-proleteriat al-ratha (lumpenproletariate), 275
- al-Qaeda network, 128
- al-Said, Mustafa, 40
- al-Sanussi, Ibrahim, 123
- Al-Sayihon (Wanderers) movement, 214–215
- al-Sha’rawi, Sheikh, 44, 48

- Al-Shamal Bank, 110
 al-Shater, Khairat, 53, 65–67, 70, 157–158 al-Sisi regime, 155
 al-Tilmasani, Omar, 49 al-Turabi, Hassan. See also Muslim Brotherhood (Sudan). See also Sudan appointment as Attorney General, 101, 123 Islamic Finance House and, 111 military committee member, 123 Muslim Brotherhood leader, 100, 110
 Amal hawwalat, 136
 Amin, Galal, 29
 Annual World Muslim Camp, 124
 Ansar Sufi order, 95–96
 Arab league, Somalia joining of, 141
 Arab-Islamic triangle, 202
 Ashiqqa' Party, 99. See also Democratic Unionist Party (DUP)
 Association of the People of Assiut, 85 austerity programs. See economic austerity measures
- baltagiyya al-'Ataat (enforcers), 303, 305–306
 baltagiyya (local strongmen), 83–84, 88, 266, 302–306 Bank Act of 1982 (Sudan), 111 banking system, formal competition with black market, 202 deregulation to be more attractive for labor remittances, 51 economic reform and growth of, 37
 in Egypt, 30, 31, 161, 162–163
 in Sudan, 185, 187, 189 loans to currency dealers by, 40
 locations of, 113–114
 banking system, informal (Egypt). See also Islamic Banks. See also Islamic Investment Companies (IICs) closure of al-Barakat and, 16 currency dealers in, 39 economy and, 27, 37–38, 40–42, 49–50 regulation by social networks, 35 banking system, informal (Somalia) clans and, 135–137
 impacts of, 130, 319
 importance of, 131
 operation of, 135 reciprocity in, 135–136 trust networks, 135
 war on terrorist finance and, 133
 banking system, informal (Somaliland), 236, 249 banking system, informal (Sudan)
- labor remittances, 94, 104–105, 106, 108
 locations of, 113–114
 Muslim Brotherhood and, 94
 Bantus clan, 146
 Barakat, Abdel Hamid, 165–167
 Barre regime. See also Somalia Arab league and, 141 clan treatment by, 220, 221, 230–231
 divergent path of Somalia and, 149 fall of, 221–222
 legalization of black market, 142–143, 316 nationalism policy, 230 opposition to, 221–222, 231–232 weak state and, 139
 Bellin, Eva, 30
 Bianchi, Robert, 51
 Bin Laden, Osama, 110, 179–180, 191 black market. See illicit economy/black market blood feud (Tar), 301
 Borama conference, 233 brain drain due to labor migration, 26
- Capital Market Authority, 158 casual labor. See informal labor Central Bank of Egypt (CBE), 161, 162–163 central bank, Sudan, 106 charities, 129. See also Islamic Welfare Associations (IWAs) Chevron, 194
 chieftainship practice, 229 China, 194
 chivalrous baltagiyya, 303
 Christians, 291, 299–300, 301, 306
 City of Workers, 75 civil society organizations established by Muslim Brother, 123–125 civil war in Somalia, 221–222, 256
 civil war in Sudan, 198–200 clan (Qabiliyat) solidarity, in Imbaba, 84 clan system in Somalia. See also specific clans as variation of state building, 223–226 hawwalat reliance on, 130 infighting, 223, 224
 intraclan conflicts, 233
 Islamist movement and, 134, 258–259
 labor remittances and, 132, 134–137, 144, 254–255
 state building and, 227
 state disintegration and, 228–232
 subclans (diya-paying groups), 228, 229
 CNPC, 194

- colonialism
 Somalia, 229–230
 Somaliland, 138, 229
 Sudan, 138–139
- committed member stage ('udu al-multazim), 69
- Communist Party of Sudan (CPS), 99–100
- Comprehensive Peace Agreement (Sudan), 199
- construction coffee houses, 276, 281–283
- construction workers. See also informal labor
- dulabs and, 267, 273, 276–281
- in Imbaba, 76, 86
- labor migration and, 72–73
- social organization of, 278–280
- structure similar to Islamic Group, 277–281
- vulnerability to boom and bust cycles, 271–276
- Coptic Christians, 291, 299–300, 301, 306
- cotton industry, 96
- Council of Defenders of the Revolution (Council of Forty), 178
- CPS (Communist Party of Sudan), 99–100
- Crenshaw, Martha, 13, 313
- currency creation, 247–248
- currency dealers, 39, 40, 51, See also banking system, informal, See also illicit economy/black market, See also labor remittances
- Da'wa, 68
- Dahabshil, 134, 136
- Darod clan, 136, 137, 230
- dawaleeb, 276
- DCA (Democratic Alternative Charter), 207
- DCIB (Development Cooperative Islamic Bank), 111
- Decree 13 (Sudan), 191
- Democratic Alternative Charter (DCA), 207
- Democratic Unionist Party (DUP), 95
- Development Cooperative Islamic Bank (DCIB), 111
- devoted member stage (muhib), 69
- Diab, Jihan, 32
- Digil clan, 137
- Dir clan, 137
- dispute resolution, 306–308
- diya-paying groups (subclans), 228, 229
- doctrine of Hisba, 283
- drugs, view of, 288
- dulab (informal construction firms), 267, 273, 276–281
- DUP (Democratic Unionist Party), 95
- economic austerity measures
 Egypt, 77
 political developments due to, 15
 Somalia, 220
 Sudan, 180, 185, 203, 204, 206, 209
- economy (Egypt)
 capital flight, 37–38 informal banking system and, 27, 37–38, 40–42, 49–50
 informalization of, 32–36, 154 internationalization of, 25–28, 37, 314 Muslim Brotherhood recruitment changing due to, 172–175 reform of, 28–32, 35, 36–38
- economy (Somalia) crisis in, 142, 147, 220
 debt, 141
 dependence on foreign aid, 140 remittances as central component of, 132
 state disintegration and, 319
 unemployment rates, 220
- economy (Sudan)
 debt, 103
 economic reform and, 318
 globalization of, 111
 inflation, 188, 212
 oil boom and, 195, 196, 197
 overview, 103–106
 partition of South Sudan, 212–213
 unemployment rates, 215–216
- economy of war, 223
- economy, generally, 314, See also banking system, formal
- Egal, Muhammad Ibrahim, 233, 237, 246
- Egypt. See also banking system, informal (Egypt), See also Imbaba (Egypt), See also informal economy (Egypt), See also informal housing (Egypt), See also Islamic Banks (Egypt), See also Islamic Group (Egypt), See also Islamic Investment Companies (IICs), See also labor remittances (Egypt), See also Mubarak regime, See also Muslim Brotherhood (Egypt), See also Nasser regime, See also patronage (Egypt), See also Sadat regime as strong state, 30–32, 52, 90 centralization by, 169 control over national economy by, 30 currency sources for, 153–154

- Egypt (cont.)
 economic reform, 28–32, 35, 36–38, 49, 317 erosion of state capacity by IICs, 40–42 expectations and outcomes in, 32–36, 323
 GDP, 29, 30, 32, 153–154
 Imbaba, 73–80
 informalization of economy and, 32–36, 154 internationalization of the economy by, 25–28, 37, 314
 Islamic economy threatened by, 171
 Islamist movement support by, 77, 78–79 labor remittance amounts, 23
 overview, 23–25, 316
 patronage in, 31, 49, 63–64
 political developments due to recession, 16
 selection of country for book, xvi
 Somalia compared, 141, 149
 Sudan compared, 52, 94, 119–120 violence by al-Sisi regime, 155
 Egyptian Businessmen's Association, 51
 Egyptian Islamic Jihad, 179
 Egyptian Saudi Investment Bank (ESIB), 46 electoral system, state changing of, 168 enforcers (baltagiyyat al-'Ataat), 303, 305–306
 Enough (Girifna), 215
 ESIB (Egyptian Saudi Investment Bank), 46
 Ethiopia
 al-Ittihad al-Islami and, 257, 259
 Somalia and, 230, 259
 UIC and, 261
 exchange rates, 39
 extortion, 83, 303, 305–306
 Fadil, Abdel, 45, 160
 Faisal Islamic Bank (FIB)
 growth of, 47, 108–110
 Islamist movement and, 129
 lending policy of, 112 Muslim Brotherhood controlling, 110
 staff recruitment and, 115
 Faisal Islamic Bank of Sudan (FIBS), 107 familial (Assabiyyat) solidarity, 84 famine in Sudan, 113
 Farah, Ahmed Yusuf, 228–229
 FIB (Faisal Islamic Bank), 46, 47
 FIBS (Faisal Islamic Bank of Sudan), 107
 Financial Action Task Force (FATF), 129
 Food Riots of 1977 (Egypt), 77
 Foreign Currency Dealing Act (Sudan), 185 foreign finance, Egypt, 29, 38 formal housing, 34
 franco valuta (f.v.) system in Somalia, 142–143, 144, 147
 Freedom and Justice Party (JFP), 161–163
 Garowe Conference, 244–245
 general adherence stage (marhalat al-rabt al-'am), 68
 General Union of Sudanese Students (GUSS), 124
 Gezira Cotton Irrigation Scheme, 96
 Gilsenan, Michael, 97
 Girifna (Enough), 215 globalization effects of, xvii
 internationalization of Egyptian economy, 25–28, 37, 314 lack of international recognition of Somaliland, 235–237 of Sudan, 111, 124–125 political conflict due to, 6
 state building and, 227
 GNOPC (Greater Nile Operating Petroleum Company), 194
 GNP (Gross National Product), 140, 143
 Gouda, Mohammed, 162 government Mosques, 288–289, See also non-government (ahali) Mosques Grand Conference of the Northern Peoples of Buraao, 232 Greater Nile Operating Petroleum Company (GNOPC), 194
 Gross Domestic Product (GDP)
 Egypt, 29, 30, 32, 153–154
 Somalia, 131, 143, 147
 Sudan, 96, 103, 192–193, 195, 206, 212
 Gross National Product (GNP), Somalia, 140, 143
 guddoon process, 138
 GUSS (General Union of Sudanese Students), 124
 guurti (national council of clan elders), 233, 242
 Hafiz, Selim, 276
 Hamdi Triangle Dialectics, 202
 Hamdi, Abd al-Rahim, 184, 200–202
 Harik, Ilya, 31
 Hassabo, Tariq, 269–270
 Hawiye clan, 137
 hawwalat. See banking system, informal. See labor remittances

- Hilal, Ismail, 165
 Hisba doctrine, 283
 Husayn, Magdi, 45
- I'tikaf (meditative seclusion), 296–297
- ICB (Islamic Cooperative Bank of Sudan), 111
- IFM (Islamic Finance House), 111
- IIBD (International Bank for Investment and Development), 46, 47
- IICs. See Islamic Investment Companies (IICs)
- Ikhwan, 53, See also Muslim Brotherhood
- illicit economy/black market. See also banking system, informal, See also informal labor, See also Islamic Investment Companies (IICs), See also labor remittances, See also local strongmen (baltagiyya) hawwalat as not, 134
 in Somalia, 142–143, 253
 interdependence with state, 183
 National Islamic Front and, 104
 resurgence in Sudan, 202–208
- Imbaba (Egypt). See also Islamic Group (Egypt) in-migration to, 76, 87
 kinship and social networks in, 84–87 lack of political voice by, 168–169 land speculation in, 81–82, 84
 map, 325
 National Party in, 163–164 social and economic history of, 74–80 state confrontation with Islamists, 156 Western Mounira, 73–74, 76, 79–80, 87
- Imbaba Youth Association, 75
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund (IMF)
- indirect rule strategy in Sudan, 94
- infatih, 28–32, 37–38, 50, 154
- inflation
 Somaliland, 242–243, 248
 Sudan, 188, 212
- informal economy (Egypt). See also banking system, informal (Egypt), See also informal housing (Egypt), See also informal labor, See also Islamic Welfare Associations (IWAs), See also labor remittances (Egypt)
 as part of GDP, 32
 economic reform and growth of, 36–38 expansion of due to labor remittance, 32–36
 Islamic Group and, 73–74
 Islamist activism and, 91, 263–265
 Mubarak regime and, 51
 recession and, 263
 regulation by social networks, 35
 state-society relations altered by, 35 values of transactions in, 32
- informal economy (Egypt):, 30
- informal economy (Somalia), 219–220, See also banking system, informal (Somalia), See also labor remittances (Somalia)
- informal economy (Sudan), 93, 181, 218, See also banking system, informal (Sudan), See also labor remittances (Sudan)
- informal housing (Egypt)
 as heterogeneous, 79 as militancy foundation, 70–73
 defined, 34
 employment opportunities in, 34
 growth of, 70–73
 in Imbaba, 76
 labor remittances used for, 25, 34–35
 militant Islamists and, 263–265
 regulation by social networks, 35
 Sadat regime and, 78
 seen as, 176–177
- informal labor. See also construction workers as militancy foundation, 70–73
 defined, 34
 formal labor compared, 271 job security, 280–281 local strongmen compared, 303
 militant Islamists and, 265–266, 267–270
 recession and, 270–276, 292
 regulation by social networks, 35
 social class and, 283, 284
 structure similar to Islamic Group, 277–281 support for by Islamic Group, 285–287
 vulnerability to boom and bust cycles, 271–276
- informal markets, generally. See also illicit economy/black market politics of, 8, See also banking system, informal, See also /i1 headings starting with, See also labor remittances politics of identity and, 10–12 regulation by social networks, 314 typology of, 9–10
- informal unions, in Sudan, 216
- informal welfare institutions, 55–58, See also Islamic Welfare Associations (IWAs), See also welfare provisioning
- inheritance problems, 308

- International Bank for Investment and Development (IIBD), 46, 47
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 184
- interpersonal trust. See trust networks
- Iran, alliance with Sudan, 186
- Isaaq clan. See also Somaliland as major clan, 137
Dahabshil Company, 136
livestock trading, 143
state retribution against, 220, 221, 231
success of, 134
- Islamic Banks (Egypt) demise of, 160–163
growth of, 41, 52
Islamic bourgeoisie and, 49–50
Islamist movement and, 129
Muslim Brotherhood and, 54
social welfare provisioning and, 56
state capacity and, 46–48
- Islamic Banks (Sudan)
al-Baraka Islamic bank, 109
as bridges to formal markets, 107–111 commercial class built by, 112–114, 117 currency dealers and, 108
deregulation of, 107–108
failure of, 187
food hoarding by, 113
growth of, 108–110
integration of, 110
Islamist movement and, 114–125, 129
lending policy of, 112
locations of, 113–114
musharaka versus murabaha contracts, 115 purposes of, 112
staff recruitment and, 114–115, 116
- Islamic bourgeoisie, 49–50
- Islamic Charter Front, 100
- Islamic Cooperative Bank of Sudan (ICB), 111
- Islamic Finance House (IFM), 111
- Islamic Group (Egypt). see also non-government (ahali) Mosques capitalization on erosion of traditional authority, 311–312 confrontation of by state, 156–157
Coptic Christians, conflict with, 291, 299–300, 301 debt issues dealt with by, 285 discipline of members, 296–297
doctrine of Hisba, 283
dulab and, 277–281 employment crisis exploited by, 276 erosion of trust networks and, 283–285
in Imbaba, 80–89
informal housing and, 70 informal networks and, 73–74, 264–265 kinship networks and, 300 leaders versus rank and file members, 267–269, 281 local strongmen, role of, 302–306 Muslim Brotherhood compared, 286, 297, 301 popular support for, 265–266 reasons to join, 297–298
recession and, 270–276
recruitment, 266–270, 280, 287, 292, 304
religious education and, 289–292, 295 revenue generation, 305–306 rivalry, control of, 306–308 role of women, 286, 287–288 rules of conduct, 296–298, 311, 322 sermons, relevance of, 287–289 social class and membership, 64 social control by, 88–89 support for workers by, 285–287 surveillance by police or state security, 309–312
tagheer al-munkar (moral degeneration), 87, 298–302 violence by, 13–14
welfare provisioning, 285–287, 288–289, 290–291
- Islamic Group (Sudan), 100
- Islamic Investment Companies (IICs) as pyramid schemes, 43, 159 as state alternative, 46 emergence of, 38–40
erosion of state capacity by, 40–42
interpersonal trust and, 42–43
Islamic bourgeoisie and, 49–50
Islamist movement and, 42–43, 45–46
Muslim Brotherhood and, 54 reasons for success of, 42–46
state regulation of, 158–160
- Islamic Movement for Liberation (IML), 99
- Islamic Welfare Associations (IWAs) erosion of traditional authority, 324
growth of, 14, 36, 56
IICs and, 45
Islamist movement and, 57, 293
militant Islamists and, 266, 321–322
numbers of, 56 role of, 14
social welfare provisioning as key factor in, 55
state regulation of, 56

- Islamist Authoritarianism. See see al-Bashir regime
- Islamist movement (Egypt). See also Muslim Brotherhood (Egypt)
- banks as empowering, 47
 - departure from conventional explanations for, 17
 - financial base for, 53
 - IICs and, 42–43, 45–46
 - in Imbaba, 76
 - informal economy and, 91
 - legitimacy from politics for, 164–167
 - overview of, 89–90
 - Sadat regime and, 77, 78
 - social class and, 77
 - social welfare provisioning as key factor in, 55–58
 - support for politicians, 164
- Islamist movement (Somalia)
- clan system and, 134, 258–259, 262
 - hawwalat and, 136, 320
 - labor remittances and, 262
 - militant Islamists and, 257
- Islamist movement (Sudan)
- factions in, 214
 - globalization of, 124–125
 - Islamic banking, 114–125, 129
 - parallel economy as threat to, 181–184
 - Sufism and, 98–99, 101
- Islamist movement, generally
- in Puntland, 245, 246, 253
 - informal markets and, 10–12
 - Islamic Banks and, 129
 - recruitment, 12
 - social and economic crisis and, 324
 - social networks benefitting, xvii, 54, 60–65, 315–319
 - state authoritarian and corruption boosting, 169
 - Sufism and, 98–99, 101, 116–117
 - types of, 13
- Isma'il, Salah Abu, 44
- Ismail, Salwa, 287
- JFP (Freedom and Justice Party), 161–163
- Joma'a, No'man, 164
- juvenile delinquency, 288
- Kahin, Dahir Riyale, 237
- Kamel, Sayed Farouk, 168, 169
- Karrar, Babikir, 100
- khaliyyas (social morays), 69
- Khatmiyya Sufi order, 95–96, 112, See also Democratic Unionist Party (DUP)
- Khutba (sermons), 287–289, 290, 305
- kinship. See also clan system in Somalia
- importance of, xviii–xix
 - social networks and, xvi, 84–87, 300
- Krugman, Alan, 312
- labor. See informal labor
- labor migration (Egypt)
- characteristics of people, 26–27
 - factors in, 26
 - liberalization of, 90
 - receiving country conditions and, 26
 - rural/urban divide, 27
- Labor Party, 164, 165–167
- labor remittances (Egypt)
- amounts of, 23
 - construction worker growth due to, 72
 - economic impacts of, 29
 - formal banking deregulation to get more of, 51
 - IICs used for, 159
 - impacts of, 7
 - inability of state to regulate, 40
 - informal economy expansion, 32–36, 71–72
 - informal housing created by, 25, 71–72
 - Islamic finance and, 129
 - methods for, 24
 - reliance on, 27–28
- labor remittances (Somalia)
- amounts of, 220
 - by clan, 132, 254–255
 - clan system and, 132, 134–137, 144
 - ethnic politics and, 147
 - impacts of, xviii, 7, 130–134
 - importance of, 143
 - Islamist movement and, 262
 - new companies involved in, 133
 - opposition to Barre and, 231
 - state building and, 220, 227
 - war on terrorist finance and, 128–129
- labor remittances (Somaliland)
- as social safety net, 238, 240–241
 - by clan, 237–241
 - state building and, 237–243
- labor remittances (Sudan)
- amounts of, 185, 188, 192–193, 195
 - economic crisis blamed on, 204
 - impacts of, 7
 - Islamic finance and, 102–106, 129
 - Muslim Brotherhood and, 94
 - recession and, 182
 - state banking and, 185
- labor remittances, generally
- boom and bust changes, xv–xvi, 6
 - impacts on local politics, 6–8

- labor remittances, generally (cont.)
 market typology, 9
- labor unions, 50–51, 75
- land speculation, 81–82, 84, 159
- Law 146 (Egypt, 1998), 158
- Law 32 (Egypt, 1977), 29
- Law 43 (Egypt, 1974), 29
- Law of Appointing Omdas (Qarar Ta'ayeen al'Omid), 310
- leftist activism, in Imbaba, 75–78
- Lewis, I.M. 228, 230
- literacy education, 295
- livestock trading decrease in, 220
 importance of, 141
 parallel economy and, 143–144
 Somaliland versus Puntland, 250–252 trust building and, 243
- Local Councils, 309, 323
- local strongmen (baltagiyya), 83–84, 88, 266, 302–306
- lumpenproletariat (al-proleteriat al-ratha), 275
- Mahdi, Ali, 256
- Majerteen. See Puntland (Somalia)
- Malik, Hassan, 53, 157
- marhalat al-rabt al-'am (general adherence stage), 68
- marital relations, resolution of, 235
- market crocodiles (tamasih al-suq), 187
- marriages, 291
- Masjid al-Nur, structure of, 294
- McCormick, B. 35
- meditative seclusion (i'tikaf), 296–297
- Menkhaus, Ken, 224
- Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region, 23, See also specific counties
- migrant workers ('Umaal Taraheel), 80
- militant Islamists. See also radical Islamists as global issue, 3 benefits from state and, 319–321 capitalism and, 3 causes of, 11–12
 commonalities with other extremists, 15 comprehensive solution to needed, 324 economic factors in recruitment, 12 informal housing seen as, 176–177 Muslim Brotherhood differentiation from, 175
 social networks and, xvii
 Somalia, 255–262, 319
 terrorism distinguished from, 12–15
- Mitchell, Timothy, 81
- Modern Forces, 126
- money laundering, 134
- money management companies (Sharikat Tawzif al-Amwal). See Islamic Investment Companies (IICs)
- moral degeneration (tagheer al-munkar), 87, 298–302
- morality, Muslim Brotherhood membership and, 68
- Morgaan, Ali, 82, 85
- Morgaan, Mahmoud, 83
- Mosques. See government Mosques, See non-government (ahali) Mosques
- Mubarak regime assassination attempt against, 191
 business groups, 50–51
 informal banking system and, 49–50
 informal housing promoted by, 34
 informal markets and, 29, 51
 Islamic Banks and, 48
 Muslim Brotherhood and, 53, 157–158, 170
 strength of state under, 52
- Mubarak, Jamil, 220
- Mudaraba principle, 43
- muhib (devoted member stage), 69
- murabaha contracts, 115, 189
- musharaka contracts, 115
- musharaka versus riba, 42, 46, 189
- Muslim Brotherhood (Egypt)
 bourgeoisie emergence and, 49–54 changing political strategy of, 167–169 commitment to, 65 coordination with Labor Party, 164 customization of recruitment materials, 62 economic reform in Egypt and, 31, 52–53 golden age of, 59–70 increasing influence of, 54–59
 inter-generational tensions, 171
 Islamic Banks and, 47–48, 161–163
 Islamic Group compared, 286, 301
 Islamic Investment Companies and, 44–45 members of, 58, 59, 63–65 mobilization strategies, 58, 60–67
 NDP and, 52, 78
 phases of membership, 68–70, 171 radical Islamists, differentiation
 from, 175
 recruitment, 170, 171–175
 Sadat and Mubarek and, 53, 157–158
 social class and, 64–65, 77, 172–175, 313
 state repression of, 157–158
 Sufism and, 176
 tarbiyya, 66–67, 70

- Muslim Brotherhood (Somalia), 257
- Muslim Brotherhood (Sudan)
- additional services by, 99
 - civil society organizations established by, 123–125
 - coup by, 126–127
 - dominance of state's financial institutions by, 184, 185
 - economic transformation and growth of, 117–118
 - emergence of, 99–100
 - growth of, 102
 - incorporation into state institutions, 119–125
 - Islamic Banks and, 110, 114–125, 189–190
 - Islamic Group compared, 297
 - military, infiltration of, 122–123
 - National Islamic Front and, 101
 - ostentatious lifestyles of members, 190
 - political involvement by, 100–102
 - recruitment by, 114–125
 - revolution for national salvation and, 126–127
 - success of, 92–93
 - Sudan Socialist Union, role in, 122
 - welfare provisioning by, 117
- Nafie, Nafie Ali, 207
- Nasser regime, 74–75, 76
- National Congress Party (NCP), 191, 200, 210, 212. See also see al-Bashir regime
- National Consensus Forces (NCF), 207
- National Cooperative Union (NCU), 111
- national council of clan elders (guurti), 233, 242
- National Democratic Party (NDP), 52, 78
- National Islamic Front (NIF). See also Muslim Brotherhood (Sudan). See also Sudan
- bankruptcy of, 192
 - becoming National Congress Party, 191
 - black market and, 104
 - coup by, 93, 126–127
 - currency dealers and, 108
 - financial policies, 181
 - foreign finance, 104
 - history of, 100
 - opposition to, 101
 - popular support for, 183
 - power of, 180
 - Revolution Command Council and, 178–179
- National Memorandum for Peace, 126
- National Party (NP), 163–164
- natural resources, curse of, 196–197, 199, 237
- NCF (National Consensus Forces), 207
- NCP (National Congress Party), 191, 200, 210, 212
- NCU (National Cooperative Union), 111
- NIF. See National Islamic Front (NIF)
- non-government (ahali) Mosques. See also Islamic Group (Egypt)
- closure by security forces, 156
 - erosion of traditional authority, 324
 - Muslim Brotherhood and, 58, 172
 - radical Islamists using, 321
 - role and structure of, 293–296
 - Sadat regime and, 78
 - sermons, 287–289, 290, 305
 - social welfare provisioning as key factor in, 55
- Ogaden clan, 143, 230–231
- oil boom
- informal labor and, 271–276
 - labor migration due to, 26
 - labor remittances and, xv–xvi, 6
 - Sudan and, 192–200, 212
- Omdas and Sheiks, 307, 309–311
- Operation Green Quest, 128–130
- Osman, Osman Ahmad, 49
- ostracism (Ta'zeer), 296–297
- PAIC (Popular Arab and Islamic Congress), 179
- parallel economy. See also banking system, informal. See also hawwalat. See also Islamic Banks. See also labor remittances
- becoming threat to Islamic movement, 181–184
 - benefits of, 38
 - defined, 9
 - economic reform and, 36
 - labor remittances as expanding, 33
 - livestock trading, 141, 143–144
 - Somalia, 140–147
- partition of South Sudan, 200–202, 209, 212–213
- patronage (Egypt)
- extortion and, 83
 - in Egypt, 49, 63–64, 65
 - in Imbaba, 74, 76
 - Muslim Brotherhood mobilization and, 63–64, 65
 - politics of in weakened state, 163–164
- patronage (Somalia), 145–146, 149

- patronage (Sudan)
 oil boom and, 195, 198, 199, 212
 partition of South Sudan and, 200
 Sufi power and, 94
- PCP (Popular Congress Party), 207
- PDF (Popular Defense Forces), 178
- peace conferences (shir beeleed), 233–234, 241
- People of the Sunna and the Community
 (Ahl al-Sunna Wal Jama'a), 257
- Political Associations Act (1998, Sudan), 191
- Popular Arab and Islamic Congress (PAIC), 179
- Popular Congress Party (PCP), 207
- Popular Defense Forces (PDF), 178, 186
- poverty, impact of, 312–313, 323
- private Mosques. See non-government (ahali) Mosques
- protection (the racket), 226, 266, 298–299
- Puntland (Somalia)
 commercialization of communal and public assets, 254
 income, 238–239, 248
 Islamist identification in, 245, 246, 253 networks of inclusion and exclusion, 253–255
 Somaliland compared, 224, 246–253
 state building and, 244–253
- pyramid schemes, 43, 159
- Qarar Ta'ayeen al'Omid (Law of Appointing Omdas), 310
- radical Islamists, 60–65, 312–313, 321, See also al-Bashir regime, See also Islamic Group (Egypt), See also militant Islamists
- Rahanwayn clan, 137
- Rawabit Iqlimiyya (Regional Associations), 85
- real estate profiteering, 81–82, 84, 159
- recession
 informal labor and, 270–276, 292
 political developments due to, 15 trust network erosion due to, 282, 284
- Regional Associations (Rawabit Iqlimiyya), 85
- religious education (tarbiyya), 289–292, 295
- remittances. See labor remittances
- rent seeking. See patronage
- resource curse, 196–197, 199, 237
- Revolution Command Council (RCC), 178, 191, See also al-Bashir regime
- riba versus musharaka, 42, 46, 189
- rural/urban divide, in labor migration, 27
- sabi, 277, 279
- Sadat regime
 business groups, 50–51
 economic liberalization by, 28, 71
 informal banking system and, 49–50
 informal housing promoted by, 34
 Islamist movement and, 55, 77, 78
 Muslim Brotherhood and, 53
- Sagemen, Marc, 312
- Salafist group, 214, 301
- Samatar, Abdi, 139
- SCN (Sudan Change Now), 215
- SDM (Somali Democratic Movements), 222
- September Laws in Sudan, 119, 121, 125, 126–127
- sermons (Khutba), 287–289, 290, 305
- Shain, Abd al-Sabur, 44
- shari'a courts in Somalia, 256
- shari'a law, 119, 121, 125, 126–127
- Sharikat Tawzif al-Amwal (money management companies). See Islamic Investment Companies (IICs)
- Sheikh peace conference, 242
- shir beeleed (peace conferences), 233–234, 241
- Singerman, Diane, 59, 156
- small firms, informal markets and, 276
- SNM (Somalia National Movement), 134, 221–222, 231–232
- social class conflicts between, 174–175
 informal labor and, 283, 284
 Islamic Bank lending practices and, 115
 Islamic militancy and, 176
 Islamist movement and, 77
 Muslim Brotherhood membership and,
 64–65, 77
 Somalia, 149, 229–230
 Sudan, 211
- social morays (khaliyyas), 69
- social networks. See also clan system in Somalia, See also trust networks downside of, 11
 effects of, xvii
 extortion and, 84
 increasing importance of, 85
 informal labor and, 273, 274–275
 interpersonal trust, IICs and, 42–43
 Islamic activism and, xvii, 54, 60–65, 315–319
 kinship and, xvi, 84–87, 300

- non-government (ahali) mosques and, 295
- regulation of informal markets by, 35
- social welfare provisioning. See welfare provisioning
- Soliman, Samar, 50, 161
- Somali Conference (13th), 260
- Somali Democratic Movements (SDM), 222
- Somali National Movement (SNM), 231–232
- Somali Patriotic Movement (SPM), 222
- Somali Reconciliation and Rehabilitation Council (SSRC), 260
- Somali Salvation Democratic Front (SSDF), 137, 222, 230, 244
- Somalia. See also banking system, informal (Somalia), See also clan system in Somalia, See also economy (Somalia), See also Islamist movement (Somalia), See also labor remittances (Somalia), See also Puntland (Somalia), See also Somaliland, See also specific clans
 - as weak state, 139–140, 144
 - austerity programs, 220
 - civil war in, 221–222, 256
 - debt, 141
 - dependence on foreign aid, 140
 - divergent path of, 149
 - economy of war, 223
 - Egypt and Sudan compared, 141, 149
 - Ethiopia and, 259
 - expectations and outcomes in, 40
 - franco valuta (f.v.) system, 142–143, 144, 147
 - GDP, 131, 143, 147
 - history of, 137–140, 228–230
 - income distribution, 146
 - livestock trading, 141, 143–144, 220
 - map, 326
 - militant Islamists, 255–262
 - origins of state disintegration, 140–147
 - overview, 317
 - parallel economy in, 140–147
 - patronage in, 145–146, 149
 - political developments due to recession, 16
 - Puntland, 224
 - reasons for state collapse, 220–223
 - selection of country for book, xvi
 - social networks and wealth accumulation, 254–255
 - sources of finance in, 145–146
 - state building, 226–227
 - state disintegration and clan networks, 228–232
 - war on terrorism impacts, 128–131, 133, 219–220
 - Xeer, 138–139, 228, 229
- Somalia National Movement (SNM), 134, 221–222, 231–232
- Somali-Ethiopia war, 230
- Somaliland. See also labor remittances (Somaliland)
 - clans in, 228
 - colonialism and, 138, 229
 - commercialization of communal and public assets, 254
 - income, 237, 238–239, 248
 - inflation, 242–243, 248
 - informal banking system and, 236, 249
 - informal social networks in, 234–235
 - lack of international recognition of, 235–237
 - multi-party elections versus clan-based system, 224
 - networks of inclusion and exclusion, 253–255
 - new currency in, 249
 - Puntland compared, 246–253
 - state building and, 223–224, 232–235, 236, 237–243, 246–253
 - taxation, 240–241, 242
 - unskilled labor market, 254
- South Sudan, partition of, 200–202, 209, 212–213
- SPA (Sudanese Professional Association), 210
- SPLM (Sudanese People's Liberation Movement), 103, 198
- SPLM-N (Sudan People's Liberation Movement North), 207
- SPM (Somali Patriotic Movement), 222
- SRF (Sudanese Revolutionary Forces), 207
- SSDF (Somali Salvation Democratic Front), 137, 222, 230, 244
- SSRC (Somali Reconciliation and Rehabilitation Council), 260
- state building
 - globalization and, 227
 - in Puntland (Somalia), 244–253
 - in Somalia, 223–227
 - in Somaliland, 223–224, 232–235, 236, 237–243, 246–253
 - labor remittances and, 227
 - Tilly, Charles on, 228
 - trust networks and, 228
 - war and, 226–227, 246
- state-society dichotomy, 9, 315–319

- strongmen. See local strongmen (baltagiyya)
- subclans (diya-paying groups), 228, 229
- subyan, exploitation of, 267, 280, 302
- Sudan. See also al-Bashir regime. See also economy (Sudan). See also informal economy (Sudan). See also Islamic Banks (Sudan). See also labor remittances (Sudan). See also Muslim Brotherhood (Sudan). See also Sufism al-Ittihad al-Islami and, 257
- as weak state, 94–97, 98, 119–120
- austerity programs, 180, 185, 203, 204, 206, 209
- black market resurgence, 202–208
- civil war in, 198–200
- coercive apparatus of state, 205
- consolidation of power, 186–187
- cotton industry, 96
- debt, 192
- democratization resistance factors, 205–207
- Egypt compared, 52, 94, 119–120
- expectations and outcomes in, 39
- famine in, 113
- financial reforms in, 184–186
- foreign finance, 102–103
- GDP, 96, 103, 192–193, 195, 206, 212
- heterogeneity of, 92
- import-export and, 187, 192
- in colonial era, 138–139
- indebtedness, 103
- inflation, 188, 212
- interdependence of illicit economy in, 183
- International Monetary Fund and, 184
- Iran alliance, 186
- Islamist Authoritarianism, unraveling of, 211–213
- lending patterns in, 187, 189
- military coup in, 92, 93, 178, 181
- military spending in, 197, 204
- monetary crisis in, 180
- National Memorandum for Peace, 126
- oil boom and, 192–200
- overview, 317
- partition of South Sudan, 200–202, 209, 212–213
- peace agreement, 199
- political developments due to recession, 16
- politics of ethnicity emergence, 198–200, 217
- protests of 2012, 203–204
- recruitment of modern Muslims, 99–102
- regional inequalities in, 103
- religious divide in, 94
- resource curse in, 196–197, 199
- Revolution Command Council, 178, 191
- revolution for national salvation and, 126–127
- rising prices in, 209–211
- Salafist group, 214
- sanctions against, 179–180, 191
- selection of country for book, xvi
- shari'a law in, 119, 121, 125, 126–127
- Somalia compared, 141, 149
- struggle for political legitimacy by, 187
- uprising in 2018, 208–211
- Wanderers movement, 214–215
- youth movement in, 215–218
- Sudan Change Now (SCN), 215
- Sudan People's Liberation Movement North (SPLM-N), 207
- Sudan Socialist Union (SSU), 122
- Sudanese Armed Forces, 122–123
- Sudanese Islamic Bank, 112
- Sudanese People's Liberation Movement (SPLM), 103, 198
- Sudanese Professional Association (SPA), 210
- Sudanese Revolutionary Forces (SRF), 207
- Sufism
- Ansar order, 95–96
 - Islamist movement and, 98–99, 101, 116–117
 - Khatmiyya order, 95–96
 - Muslim Brotherhood compared, 176
 - patronage and, 94
 - politics and, 97–99
 - welfare provisioning and, 117
- summer camps in Sudan, 123–124
- supporter member stage ('udu al-muaid), 69
- surveillance by police or state security, 286, 309–312
- Ta'zeer (ostracism), 296–297
- Tadamun Islamic Bank, 110
- tagheer al-munkar (moral degeneration), 87, 298–302
- Taha, Ali Osman, 178, 204
- tamasih al-suq (market crocodiles), 187
- Tar (blood feud), 301
- tarbiyya, 66–67, 70
- tarbiyya (religious education), 289–292, 295
- taxation
- Islamic Welfare Associations exemption from, 57

- Somalia, 139
 Somaliland, 240–241, 242
 Sudan, 105
 telecom services industry, 247–248 terrorists and terrorism al-Ittihad al-Islami seen as, 255 failed states and, 319–324
 failure of, 13
 finance of, 128–131, 133
 Islamist activism distinguished from, 12–15 militant Islamists distinguished from, 12–15
 Somalia, 219–220
 TFG (Transitional Federal Government), 259–260
 the racket (protection), 226, 266, 298–299
 Tilly, Charles, 25, 35, 227, 228
 TNA (Transitional National Assembly), 191
 Toth, James, 275
 Transitional Federal Government (TFG), 259–260
 Transitional National Assembly (TNA), 191 trust networks. See also social networks erosion of, 282, 283–285
 extortion and, 84
 IICs and, 42–43
 Islamic Investment Companies and, 42–43
 Muslim Brotherhood and, 61–62, 63
 Somalia hawwalat and, 135
 state building and, 228
 Tur, Abd al-Rahman ‘Ali, 233

 UIC (Union of Islamic Courts), 225
 Umma Party, 99, 100–101, 110, 207
 UN Resolution 1514 (1960), 235 unemployment rates, Sudan, 215–216
 Union of Islamic Courts (UIC)
 al-Ittihad al-Islami, association with, 256 Alliance for Restoration of Peace and Counter Terrorism and, 260 clannism and, 260–261
 Ethiopia and, 259
 success of, 260
 takeover of Mogadishu, 225, 255–257 unions, 215, 216
 United Somali Congress (USC), 222–223, 232

 United States, war on terrorist finance in Somalia, 128–131, 133
 University of Gezira student killings, 217
 unskilled labor market, 254
 upstanding brother stage (‘udu al-muntassib), 69
 USC (United Somali Congress), 222–223, 232

 Wahba, Jackline, 35
 Wahdat al-Shabaab al-Islam, 257
 Wanderers (Al-Sayihoon) movement, 214–215 war
 civil war in Somalia, 221–222, 256
 civil war in Sudan, 198–200
 economy of war, 223
 interstate versus intrastate, 226–227
 state building and, 226–227, 246
 war on terrorism failed states and, 319–324
 failure of, 13
 finance of, 128–131, 133
 Somalia, 128–131, 133, 219–220
 Waterbury, John, 26, 29, 30 weddings, 291
 welfare provisioning. See also Islamic Welfare Associations (IWAs)
 in Imbaba, 88
 Islamic Banks and, 56
 Islamic Group and, 285–287, 288–289, 290–291
 Islamic movement and, 55–58 people as not relying on state, 173, 323
 Sufism supplanted by Muslim Brotherhood, 117
 Western Mounira, Imbaba, 73–74, 76, 79–80, 87, See also Islamic Group (Egypt)
 Wickham, Carrie Rosefky, 61 women, role of, 286, 287–288

 Xeer, 138–139, 228, 229

 Yusif, Abdullahi, 230, 244–245, 259, 260

 Zakat
 erosion of traditional authority, 324
 Islamic Group, 305–306
 IWAs and, 45, 57
 social welfare provisioning and, 56

