The Law of Misstatements

50 Years on from Hedley Byrne v Heller
Edited by Kit Barker, Ross Grantham
and Warren Swain

2013 was the 50th anniversary of the House of Lords' landmark decision in Hedley Byrne v Heller. This international collection of essays brings together leading experts from five of the most important jurisdictions in which the case has been received (the United Kingdom, the United States, New Zealand, Canada and Australia) to reappraise its implications from a number of complementary perspectives—historical, theoretical, conceptual, doctrinal and comparative.

Kit Barker is Professor of Law and Ross Grantham is Professor of Commercial Law, both of the TC Beirne School of Law, the University of Queensland.

Warren Swain is Professor in the Faculty of Law, University of Auckland.

IP and Other Things

A Collection of Essays and Speeches
Robin Jacob

These essays and speeches, selected from The Rt Hon Professor Sir Robin Jacob's published and unpublished writings and lectures, illustrate the breadth of his learning in IP and other matters. They are written in typically straightforward and entertaining style and, in the case of the older essays, include a commentary of what has happened since they were first published. They will be of interest to any lawyer, law student or scholar interested in the development of IP law in the past quarter century or so.

The Rt Hon Professor Sir Robin Jacob is the Sir Hugh Laddie Professor of Intellectual Property Law at University College London.

Entick v Carrington

250 Years of the Rule of Law
Edited by Adam Tomkins and Paul Scott

Entick v Carrington is one of the canons of English public law and in 2015 it is 250 years old. The case is a canonical statement of the common law's commitment to the constitutional principle of the rule of law. In this collection, leading public lawyers reflect on the history of the case, the enduring importance of the legal principles for which it stands, and the broader implications of Entick v Carrington 250 years on.

Adam Tomkins is the John Millar Professor of Public Law at the University of Glasgow.

Paul Scott is a Lecturer in Public Law at the University of Southampton.
