Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies (BMGS) is an internationally recognized, peer-reviewed journal and one of the leading publications in its field. It is viewed as an important outlet for current research. Published twice a year in spring and autumn, its remit has always been to facilitate the publication of high-quality research and discussion in all aspects of Byzantine and Modern Greek scholarship, whether historical, literary or social-anthropological. It welcomes research, criticism and contributions on theory and method in the form of articles, critical studies and short notes. Since its foundation the scope of the journal has been substantially expanded to include articles dealing with aspects of Ottoman and Turkish history where they overlap with, or are relevant to, the fields of Byzantine and Modern Greek studies. BMGS has published articles on such diverse themes as: anthropology, archaeology, art and architecture, epistolography, ethnic and national identity, geography, geopolitics, hagiography, history, language, literature, medieval taxation, military technology, political and social and economic history, publishing and textiles.

Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies (ISSN 0307-0131; e-ISSN 1749-625X) is published twice yearly by Maney Publishing in spring and autumn.
