Directory of European Political Scientists

Fourth Edition

Compiled and edited by the European Consortium for Political Research, University of Essex

The fourth edition of this authoritative who's who of the political science professions in Europe has been substantially expanded and includes close to 3,000 entries, with some 600 entries listed for the first time. The index has also been much improved, now providing a breakdown of over 130 subject/geographical headings, thus enabling users of the Directory to identify individuals interested in either a particular subject or regional area of political science.
