LITANY AT NAZARETH

By REV. J. J. McNALLY

This new volume of short sermons rendering honour to Mary contains forty-nine homilies inspired by the invocations in the Litany of Mary. They are not mere abstract eulogies, but are, above all, practical and unforgettable lessons in Christian living.

The author's style is simple and unaffected, so that it never intrudes to distract the reader from the great significance of the thoughts he expresses.

NEW LIFE IN CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

By REV. L. R. WARD

As he did in Blueprint for a Catholic University, Father Ward voices an urgent appeal for a new inspiration for Catholic schools. All social institutions, including Catholic schools, need an occasional 'shot in the arm'. Catholic schools must be great schools. Such greatness is elusive, in fact impossible of achievement unless Catholic educators keep their proper goal, their 'end of ends', in full sight.
