Social Identities

Journal for the Study of Race, Nation and Culture

EDITORS

Abebe Zegeye,

University of California, Santa Barbara, USA

David Theo Goldberg,

Arizona State University, Tempe, USA

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Recent years have witnessed considerable worldwide changes concerning social identities such as race, nation and ethnicity, as well as the emergence of new forms of racism and nationalism as discriminatory exclusions.

Focusing on these changes is a new body of academic work appearing in a wide range of journals. The aim of Social Identities is to furnish an interdisciplinary and international focal point for theorizing issues at the interface of social identities. The journal is especially concerned to address these issues in the context of the transforming political economies and cultures of postmodern and postcolonial conditions. Social Identities is intended as a forum for contesting ideas and debates concerning the formations of, and transformations in, socially significant identities, their attendant forms of material exclusion and power, as well as the political and cultural possibilities opened up by these identifications.

EDITOR

Jarrod Wiener,

University of Kent, Canterbury, UK

We are pleased to announce that Paradigms: The Kent Journal of International Relations is to be relaunched as Global Society: Journal of Interdisciplinary International Relations and will be published by Carfax Publishing Company on behalf of the University of Kent at Canterbury from Volume 10, 1996.

Global Society covers the new agenda in international relations and encourages innovative approaches to the study of international issues from a range of disciplines. It promotes the analysis of international transactions at multiple levels, and in particular, the way in which these transactions blur the distinction between the sub-national, national and transnational levels.

Contributions are from a variety of disciplines including International Relations, Political Science, Political Philosophy, International Political Economy, International Law, International Conflict Analysis and Sociology. NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Of central concern is the fate of the Balts, Ukrainians, Jews and the peoples of Central Asia and the Caucasus. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. For information on submitting manuscripts, write to: Professor Henry R. Huttenbach, Editor-in-Chief, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, The City College of New York, 138th Street and Convent Avenue, New York, NY 10031, USA.
