All editorial correspondence and manuscripts should be addressed to Mark DeLancey, Editor, African Studies Review, Department of Government and International Studies, University of South Carolina, Columbia SC 29208. African Studies Review policy precludes the acceptance of unsolicited book reviews. As a corollary, we do not accept requests to review specific books.

All manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, typed double-spaced. Maps, tables, charts and other illustrations must be camera-ready. Manuscripts should conform to the latest edition of A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). List notes and references at the end of the article. Manuscripts will be submitted anonymously to readers; please include a removable cover page giving name and mailing address, fax number and e-mail address, if available; title should be on the first page of text. Avoid self-identification as author throughout article. Include a 250-word abstract, as well as a signed statement that the article has not been published and is not currently under consideration by other journals. ASR will only consider unpublished manuscripts.
