A NEW COURSE!

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW (BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK?)

About

Surgical Technique

Surgical Instruments

Sutures and Needles

Drills and Lasers

The Operating Microscope

Fiberoptic and Rigid Endoscopes etc!

An intensive 3 day course for SHO's, Registrars (and even Senior Registrars!)

8-10 November 1993

Bargain price £150 (includes lunch, tea, coffee etc)

The course will cover a wide range of Otorhinolaryngological and Head and Neck surgical techniques with instruction in the design, function and use of instruments, sutures and equipment. Essential details often neglected, infrequently taught, and difficult to obtain from books will be covered. These details are basic to the art and practice of safe and effective surgery.

Come and improve your skills in surgical technique and learn how to use equipment correctly. The course will include lectures, practical demonstrations and video presentations.

Come and enjoy yourself!

ARE YOU A SUBSCRIBER TO THE J.L.O.?

TEN good reasons why you should:

Each issue contains 40 per cent more material.

Main Articles, Case Reports and Short Communications from all over the world.

Quarterly Book Review Service.

Selected Abstract Service each month.

Period between acceptance and publication cut to six months or less.

Subscribers receive all supplements produced in that year.

Every 10 years, complete index issue published—included in the subscription (next issue will appear at the end of 2002).

Reduced subscription rates for those in training (Registrars/Residents/Interns).

Subscription normally tax deductible. (Those in training should submit a certificate from the Head of the Department giving details of their appointment; those who qualify must supply their home address for mailing direct.)

The J.L.O. has now been published for more than a century and remains excellent value for money—so why not have your own individual copy and give yourself everyday access!

Instructions to Authors

Review Articles. Articles of this type, preferably not exceeding 3,000 words will be considered but the author(s) are expected to be a recognised authority on the topic and have carried out work of their own in the relevant field.

Historical Articles. Articles of this type are generally encouraged, but it is obvious that they have to provide some new information or interpretation, whether it be about a well-known person or for example an instrument associated with him, but those from within a Hospital's own department who have made a hitherto less well-known contribution would be welcome.

Letters to the Editor. This feature has been re-introduced to give those who wish to comment about a paper previously published within the Journal, an opportunity to express their views. Wherever possible, the original author is asked to add his further comment, thereby adding to the value of the contribution. Such letters should be sent as soon as possible after publication of each month's issue of the Journal in the hope of including them early thereafter.

'Mini-papers', such as those which appear in the British Medical Journal, Lancet, or New England Journal of Medicine, will not be acceptable except on the rare occasion that they bring information of immediate interest to the reader.

Pathology. Articles which are of pathological interest with particular emphasis on the way the diagnosis was achieved now appear on a monthly or bimonthly basis. It is hoped that clinicians will involve their pathologists in these reports, and all illustrations must be of first-class quality. Where a department, particularly those overseas, may not have such specialized facilities, it may be possible, if a block or several unstained sections are provided for our Adviser to produce or supplement the illustration submitted. Only contributions of particular pathological interest will be accepted.

Radiology. Short reports on cases in which the radiology has been crucial in the making of the diagnosis or the management of a particular case now appear on a monthly or bimonthly basis. This spot is to encourage clinicians and radiologists to produce material of particular interest in the specialty and to encourage co-operation in this field. Only presentations with first-class illustrations can be accepted and these must emphasise a problem of unusual clinical interest.

Short Communications. This feature will be used on an occasional basis. Examples of material suitable for inclusion under this title would be, for example: a piece of work which was of clinical interest but had failed to produce findings which were of statistical significance; where an investigative technique has been applied to an allied field, not warranting a further in-depth description of its earlier application and methodology.

'Silence in Court'. Articles on medicolegal topics are welcome but a preliminary letter written beforehand is requested to ensure that the contribution would be appropriate.

Check List for Authors/Secretaries

1. Title page—Titles should be short with names of the authors, higher degrees only and the city/country. Details of the departments in which the authors work should be put lower down.
An address for correspondence should be supplied together with the author who should receive this; this will ultimately appear beneath the list of references. If the paper was presented at a meeting, the details of this must be given and will be inserted at the bottom of the first page of the printed script.
2. Abstract—No paper will be accepted without this and it adds considerably to the Editor's time to have to write and request this if the paper is accepted.
3. Key Words—only those appearing as Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) in the supplement to the Index Medicus may be used; where appropriate word(s) are not listed those dictated by common sense/usage should be supplied.
4. To follow the instructions to Authors with the way in which the paper is set out. It is preferred that each section should start on a fresh page with double spacing and wide margins.
5. References must be in the Harvard system; to submit a paper using the Vancouver system is automatically to have it returned or rejected.
6. Two sets of illustrations must be included, one of half-plate size and the other with the width of 80 mm. Illustrations must be clearly labelled with the author's name on the reverse side and where appropriate with an arrow to give orientation.
7. Authors to check manuscript and references to see that these match up particularly for dates and spelling.
8. Title of Journals must be given in full with the date, volume number and first and last pages.
9. Consent to be obtained from a patient if a photograph of their face is to be reproduced.
10. If the author to whom correspondence is to be directed changes his address, he should let the Editorial Office know as soon as possible.
11. Page proofs will normally be sent out one month in advance and must be returned as soon as possible.
12. Authors should provide a Facsimile number (FAX) whenever possible to speed communication. The FAX number of the Editorial office is 0483 451874.
13. Manuscripts with tables only may be transmitted by FAX; those with graphic or visual illustrations, e.g. graphs, X-rays, pathology, electrical records (ENG, BSER etc) must continue to be sent by post as the quality of reproduction does not give sufficient accuracy of detail.
