

Editorials

- Medical incapacity act. A. S. Zigmond 657
Ensuring the skills of tomorrow's psychiatrists. C. Katona 659

Review articles

- Mental health legislation is now a harmful anachronism.
G. Szmukler and F. Holloway 662
Invited commentaries on: Mental health legislation is now a harmful anachronism. K. M. Fulford and L. Sayce 666

Original papers

- Monitoring patients on high-dose antipsychotics. *J. M. Barber,
J. Connaughton and M. Wright* 671
Hidden high-dose antipsychotic prescribing: effects of p.r.n. doses.
J. Milton, J. Lawton, M. Smith and A. Buckley 675
Rationale behind psychiatrists' choice of drug. J. Dickson-Mulinga 677
Prescriptions, licences and evidence. D. Healy and D. Nutt 680
Use of antipsychotics by child and adolescent psychiatrists.
K. Slaveska, C. Hollis and D. Bramble 685
Changes in practice of ECT: a follow-on study. K. Trezise 687
Proposed change in service delivery and stress among nursing staff.
A. Shah and T. De 690
Influence of mailing strategies on response to questionnaires.
K. Newton, S. M. Stein and C. Lucey 692
Assessing the physical health of psychiatric patients.
D. P. J. Osborn and J. P. Warner 695

Evidence-based psychiatry

- Appraisal of meta-analysis. A. Chakraborty, J. P. Warner and R. Blizard 698

Trainees' forum

- Psychotherapy on a shoestring: improving training using existing resources.
S. P. Davies 702
Specialist assessment clinic for pervasive developmental disorders.
N. Falls 706

Personal view

- New drugs and the NHS: square pegs and a round hole. D. Taylor 709

Briefing

- Mental health review tribunals. Z. Muth 711

Correspondence

713

Obituaries

716

Miscellany

718

Forthcoming events

720