

December
1996

The Journal of

Laryngology & Otology

Founded in 1887
by Murrell Mackenzie & Norris Wolfenden

SUPPLEMENT No. 21

THE BIRMINGHAM BONE ANCHORED
HEARING AID PROGRAMME 1988-1995

Departments of Otolaryngology, and Audiology, University Hospital
NHS Trust Birmingham

Vol
110

Supplement

21

The Birmingham Bone Anchored Hearing Aid Programme 1988-1995

Departments of Otolaryngology and Audiology,
University Hospital NHS Trust Birmingham

From the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Edgbaston, Birmingham B15 2TH

November 1996

CONTENTS

Introduction: David W. Proops	5
The Birmingham bone anchored hearing aid programme: surgical methods and complications. David W. Proops	7
The Birmingham bone anchored hearing aid programme: referrals, selection, rehabilitation, philosophy and adult results. Huw Cooper, Stuart Burrell, Ruth Powell, David W. Proops, Jaki Bickerton	13
The Birmingham bone anchored hearing aid programme: paediatric experience and results. Ruth Powell, Stuart Burrell, David W. Proops	21
The bone anchored hearing aid: the third option for otosclerosis. Stuart Burrell, Huw Cooper, David W. Proops	31
The bone anchored hearing aid and chronic suppurative otitis media. Marcelle Macnamara, David Phillips, David W. Proops	38
Bone anchored hearing aid wearers with significant sensorineural hearing losses: (borderline candidates): patients' results and opinions. Sheena Hartland, David W. Proops	41
Speech and voice rehabilitation in selected patients fitted with a bone anchored hearing aid (BAHA). Julie Thomas	47

