American Antiquity publishes original papers on the archaeology of the New World and closely related subjects. Articles, Reports, and Comments should be submitted to the Editor, contributions intended for the Memoir series should be submitted to the Editor, publications for review to the Associate Editor for Reviews, and information for "Current Research" to the Associate Editor for Current Research. American Antiquity is not available for exchange.

American Antiquity is published quarterly in January, April, July, and October by the Society for American Archaeology. Second-class postage paid at Washington, D.C. and additional mailing offices. Subscription is by membership in the Society for American Archaeology. Annual dues for individual members are $15.00; for institutional members, $20.00. Special membership rates of $10.00 are available to students and to the members in Latin America and overseas. Spouses of members are eligible for joint membership at $3.00 per year (subscription to American Antiquity not included). Address requests for individual or institutional membership, instructions for change of address, or complaints about subscription fulfillment to Society for American Archaeology, 1703 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20009. See inside back cover for information on ordering back issues of American Antiquity and other publications of the Society that are still in print. NOTICE TO AUTHORS

All manuscript material must be typed double-spaced on one side of sheet only. Use white non-corrasable bond. Submit original plus two copies. Include an abstract of less than 150 words that specifically refers to text material. Upon publication, abstracts will be submitted to Abstracts in Anthropology for inclusion in that series. Footnotes are not permitted. Text citations are set in parentheses, e.g., (Author 1970:100). References are listed alphabetically by author and chronologically by year. For details of manuscript organization, form of reference citation, and punctuation, etc., examine this issue. Citations in a review are placed entirely between parentheses in the text. All illustrations must be submitted as black on white drawings or as glossy prints and must not exceed 9x12 in. Number all figures consecutively and provide a caption for each. Tables should be typed on separate pages, numbered in sequence, and given headings. Large tables should be photographically reduced to fit one or more pages. Radiocarbon ages are given in the following forms: 11,950±100 radiocarbon years: 10,000 B.C. (Z-200), if not previously cited; 1,000±100 radiocarbon years: A.D. 950 (Smith 1960), if previously cited. (See American Antiquity 36:246-249 for more detailed information on style.)

FRYXELL AWARD

The Fryxell Award has been established by the Society for American Archaeology in memory of Roald Fryxell whose career exemplified so well the crucial role of interdisciplinary cooperation in archaeological research. The award, consisting of a citation and an appropriate medallion, will be presented annually to a scholar who has made important interdisciplinary contributions to the archaeology of the Americas (New World). Contributions to the Fryxell Award Fund may be sent to the Society for American Archaeology, 1703 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20009.
