History

Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

A vintage black and white advertisement for Crisco. The top half of the image shows a woman in a dark dress and apron standing at a kitchen counter, mixing ingredients in a large bowl with a spoon. A young child in a plaid dress sits on the counter next to her, looking on. On the counter in the foreground is a tin of Crisco shortening, a small bowl, and a few eggs. The background features a tiled wall and a window with curtains. The text is arranged in a decorative, calligraphic style.
