

Nations and Nationalism

Journal of the Association for the Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism

Editors

Anthony Smith, London School of Economics, Obi Patience Igwara, University of Warwick, Kelvin Knight, University of North London, Athena Leoussi, University of Reading, Terry Mulhall, London School of Economics

Nationalism is the central issue of the modern world. Since the demise of the Soviet Union there has been a proliferation of nationalism and ethnic conflict. The consequent explosion of interest in nationalism has created an urgent need for systematic study in this field. Nations and Nationalism aims to satisfy this need. The journal is published three times a year and includes original studies – theoretical, empirical and historical – of a range of issues in the field together with review articles and book reviews. Special issues will highlight subjects and areas of current interest. The journal covers all areas of the world.

Coverage includes:

- Theories of nationalism
- History and national identity
- Language and nationalism
- Religion and nationalism
- Class and nationalism
- Race and nationalism
- Gender and nationalism
- Democracy and multinational states
- Post-modernity and the nation
- Space and nationalism
- Mass media and nationalism
- Art and nationalism
- Imperialism and nationalism
- Secession and irredentism
- Nation states and international society

Review of International Studies

Editor

Paul Taylor
London School of Economics

Established in 1974 as the flagship journal of the British International Studies Association, Review of International Studies serves the needs of scholars in politics, law, history and all other areas of social science in the international arena.

Wide-ranging

Review of International Studies is a journal which no library on international relations can be without. Its scope is wide-ranging both in terms of subject matter and method. It covers all topics from international organization and intercultural communication to political economy and war cultures. It is receptive to new methodologies and draws on the expertise of other disciplines, such as sociology and psychology, to throw light on the study of international relations. Review of International Studies takes a strong interdisciplinary perspective.

Review of International Studies ...

- contains articles of lasting importance
- is genuinely interdisciplinary
- is committed to serious scholarship
- has contributors from round the world
- is a journal for professionals

Notes for Contributors

1 All contributions should be sent to: The Editors, British Journal of Political Science, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester, Essex CO4 3SQ, UK. They should not be sent to the Cambridge University Press or to the Editorial Assistant.

2 Articles submitted to the Journal should in general be between 5,000 and 12,000 words (or equivalent in tables and figures) in length. An abstract not exceeding 120 words is required. Contributors should note the Journal's editorial policy, which is as stated inside the front cover.

3 Notes and Comments are welcome. A Note should contain a body of original information, a new method for doing something or a new idea (speculation, argument, proof, etc.) presented in a brief and unadorned form without inessential commentary. Comments containing criticisms of articles published in the Journal and additional thoughts on them will be considered for early publication, especially if they are short – say, under 1,000 words.

4 Most issues of the Journal contain a Review Article – either a detailed discussion of a single book or a review of the state of some area of the discipline. Review Articles submitted without prior consultation will be considered for publication, but in their own interest contributors would be well advised not to prepare a Review Article specially for the Journal without first getting in touch with the Editors.

5 Authors of articles and Review Articles receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if they are ordered at proof stage.

6 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press.

7 Authors should submit FOUR COPIES of their articles. Contributions must be typed and may be reproduced in any clearly legible form. The preferred size of paper is A4 (8 $\frac{1}{4}$ × 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ in), but quarto (8 × 10 in) or the US standard size (8 $\frac{1}{2}$ × 11 in) will also be accepted. Because of postage costs, manuscripts not accepted for publication are not normally returned to the authors unless their return is specifically requested.

8 The entire material of any article, including footnotes, quotations, appendices, etc., should be double spaced, with left-hand margins of at least 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively in the text and typed double spaced all together at the end, beginning on a fresh page.

9 Anyone who is preparing a manuscript for submission to the Journal is urged to follow the Journal's style sheet, which covers a number of detailed points concerning footnotes, punctuation, spelling, etc. Copies of the style sheet can be obtained from the Editors. Footnote references should always contain, in the case of books, the name of the author as it appears on the title page, the full title including any subtitle, the place of publication, the name of the publisher and the date of publication, and, in the case of articles, the name of the author, the full title, the name of the journal, the volume number, the year and the page reference (number of first and last page).

10 When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory.

11 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editors an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by air mail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent directly to the Editors by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.
