The Claims of Kinfolk

African American Property and Community in the Nineteenth-Century South

DYLAN C. PENNINGROTH

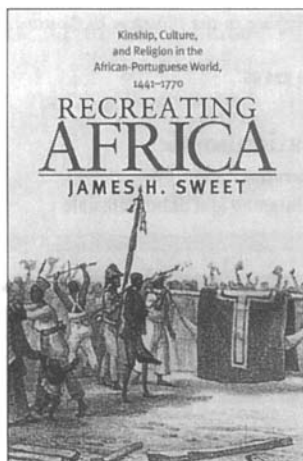

Examines the informal economy of property ownership among slaves.

"Utterly transform[s] our understanding of the meaning of property in the South, the history of family and community in slavery, and the centrality of African history to American history."
—Walter Johnson, author of Soul by Soul

"Opens up our narrow assumptions about the lives of enslaved and emancipated people, in both the New and Old Worlds."
—Nell Irvin Painter, author of Southern History across the Color Line

The John Hope Franklin Series in African American History and Culture

320 pp., 22 illus. $49.95 cloth / $19.95 paper

Recreating Africa

Culture, Kinship, and Religion in the African-Portuguese World, 1441–1770

JAMES H. SWEET

Africa and the transformation of culture in Brazil's slave society.

"This important book includes outstanding narratives of slave religious practices in colonial Brazil that I have seen nowhere else. . . . Highly recommended to all students of the African diaspora."
—Mary Karasch, Oakland University

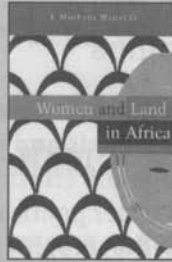

"Sweet has mined an incredibly rich source of information in the Inquisition archives and produced an engaging study of the inner lives of Africans suffering under slavery in Brazil. His book will be a landmark in bringing Africa into the mix in Brazilian history."
—John Thornton, author of Africa and Africans in the Making of the Atlantic World, 1400–1800

NOW IN PAPERBACK!

THE FALL OF APARTHEID

The Inside Story from Smuts to Mbeki
Robert Harvey

This book tells the extraordinary story how apartheid came into being, secured its ascendancy over the richest and most developed society in sub-Saharan Africa, and then collapsed. For the first time it reveals the full story of the secret meetings between Africans and Afrikaners in Britain, in which South Africa's current president, Thabo Mbeki, had a direct line to President Botha.
256 pp. / 1-4039-1574-1 / $22.95 pb.

IMAGINING THE CONGO

The International Relations of Identity
Kevin Dunn

Understanding the current civil war in Congo requires an examination of how the Congo's identity has been imagined over time. Imagining the Congo historicizes and contextualizes the constructions of the Congo's identity during four historical periods.
228 pp. / 1-4039-6159-X / $75.00 cl.
1-4039-6160-3 / $24.95 pb.

THABO MBEKI'S WORLD

The Politics and Ideology of the South African President

Edited by Sean Jacobs and Richard Calland

This book provides a comprehensive study of Mbeki's leadership and its implications for South Africa's future.

BEYOND STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT

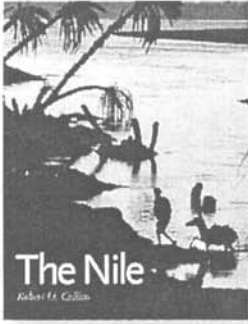

The Institutional Context of African Development
Edited by Nicolas van de Walle, Nicole Ball and Vijaya Ramachandran

The book is based on the premise that Africa's economic renewal will require moving beyond the narrow bounds of structural adjustment reform and promoting the greater effectiveness of the region's public institutions.
288 pp. / 1-4039-6316-9 / $69.95 cl.

“An epic sweep”*

The Nile

Robert O. Collins

“In an epic sweep across time and space, this book explores the lands and peoples of the Nile basin, the age-old effort to control its waters, and the bitter political battles over its ownership. This is environmental history at its best.”—Robert Harms*

“Collins brings both passion and erudition to his task; the science is there, but the romance is not forgotten.”—Toronto Globe and Mail
48 b/w + 1 color illus. $39.95

“A compelling journey”*

The Nile Basin

National Determinants of Collective Action

John Waterbury

“This excellent book makes a significant contribution to the rational discussion of Nile conflicts and should be helpful to many of the other 282 international river basins facing similar problems.”—Peter P. Rogers

“The reader is taken on a compelling journey through water politics, spanning from the colonial period through the cold war era to contemporary times, illustrating the reasons why basin-wide cooperation is yet to emerge among the Nile riparians. . . . Waterbury has a long experience of working in the Nile region, which makes the book empirically insightful and analytically illuminating.”
