

FOREIGN LAW:
Current Sources of Codes and Basic Legislation in Jurisdiction of the World

Thomas H. Reynolds & Arturo A. Flores

3 vols. ISBN 0-8377-0134-1 AALL Publ. Series No. 33 loose-leaf set $450.00

This work, arranged alphabetically by jurisdiction, provides the user with relevant information on sources of foreign law including complete bibliographic citations to legislation, the existence of English translations whenever possible, indications of currentness of the legal materials listed, and finally, selected references to secondary sources in English.

Each section contains an introduction which describes the particular country's legal system and mentions the major English-language books on the laws of that country. A subject breakdown with citation to primary sources and translations enables the user to ascertain what laws are operative in a particular subject area.

Volume 1, published in December 1989, covers the Western Hemisphere. Volume 2, published in July 1991, covers Western and Eastern Europe and the European Communities. Volume 3, to be published in December 1992, will cover Africa, Asia and Australia.

"It is truly a monumental work . . . very strongly recommended and considered a 'must-buy' for virtually every law library." Daniel L. Wade, Yale Law School Library, 10 Legal Reference Services Q. 104.

The Legislative History of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act and the Travaux Préparatoires of the Hague Rules

Compiled and edited by
Michael F. Sturley

With translations by
Caroline Boyle

3 vols. January 1991 ISBN 0-8377-1166-5 cloth $225.00

The Carriage of Goods by Sea Act was enacted to achieve international uniformity in the law governing bills of lading, but lack of access to many of the background materials has caused judges and lawyers who deal with COGSA largely to ignore this wealth of information. This legislative history addresses a major need for evidence of this international uniform law's intended meaning by organizing all materials for easy reference.

Editorial notes before each document (or groups of documents) explain individual points of interest, and the historical introduction places all sources in their appropriate context. International sources are reprinted here, including translations when necessary.
