A note from the Editor

The present issue of the Journal , somewhat larger than usual, comprises both parts of volume 22, due out in June and December of 1992. This brings the Journal back close to its proper production schedule. Every effort will be made to maintain this schedule in the future.

The officers of the Association listed on the inside cover of this issue are those who held office as the year 1992 drew to a close. Some important changes are coming (see the Association News section), and more details will be given in the next issue. For the time being, membership subscriptions should still be sent to Peter Roach at Leeds.
