Greek Religion and Society

Edited by P. E. EASTERLING and J. V. MUIR
With a foreword by SIR MOSES FINLEY

Greek religion is a subject of absorbing interest, essential for the understanding of history and culture. This collection of essays ranges over many aspects of Greek civil life, looking at the ways in which religion manifested itself in institutions, art and literature, and tracing the attitudes that lay behind the manifold cults and customs.

Demos: The Discovery of Classical Attika

ROBIN OSBORNE

Demos is a study of a classical city-state: the first attempt to provide an integrated account which gives due attention to the countryside as well as the urban area of a polis. Dr Osborne concentrates on classical Athens, for which the literary and archaeological evidence is richest, and establishes the nature of settlement in the countryside, relating it to farming, the exploitation of mineral resources, and politics.

A Commentary on the Iliad

Volume I: Iliad 1-4

G. S. KIRK

This volume covers the first four Books of the Iliad and consists of four introductory chapters dealing in particular with rhythm and formulaic techniques, followed by the detailed commentary. The aim is to help serious readers by attempting to identify and deal with most of the difficulties which might stand in the way of a sensitive and informed response to the poem. Professor Kirk is the General Editor of this projected six-volume commentary.

The Parthenon and its Sculptures

JOHN BOARDMAN
PHOTOGRAPHS BY DAVID FINN

The Elgin marbles and other sculptures from the Parthenon in Athens created in the 5th century BC exemplify the high point in the development of the most influential tradition of western sculpture. In the first of three Autumn books by John Boardman, Lincoln Professor of Classical Archaeology and Art, the most powerful and evocative scenes from the sculptures are examined, with new photographs taken by universally acclaimed photographer David Finn.

Classical, Byzantine and Modern

GENERAL EDITOR: ROBERT BROWNING

Nobody is untouched by the heritage of Greece and its people, who have shaped and inspired so much of Western Science, art and philosophy. Now this volume draws together the many fragments from past and present to put on record the entire Greek experience. Aided by a magnificent array of colour pictures and under the direction of Professor Browning, an international team of specialist contributors analyse every facet of Greek history, life and culture.

Greek and Roman Maps

O. A. W. DILKE

The theory of Greek scientists and the practice of Roman administrators and surveyors raised the ancient skill of map-making to the level of a science. In this study, the first to devote itself to the maps and plans of Classical antiquity, Professor Dilke demonstrates just how developed map-making skills were in this era and puts the achievements in the context of the history of cartography.

Hellenic and Roman Societies

SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 5,500 coloured slides (35 mm), covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Roman frescoes and mosaics and Greek vases.

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips may be bought or hired by members. The hire charge is at present 3p per slide per week, and 60p per slide for purchase. A list of sets is available on request; the catalogue of slides costs £2.00. Postage and packing is extra.

There are 32 coloured slide sets, of which 14 are available as filmstrips. There are also 3 black and white sets, which will be phased out and reproduced in colour. Notes to sets are included in the hire price of £1 per set per week. Several new sets are in preparation.

For further particulars apply to the Keeper of Slides at 31-34 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP.

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR G. B. KERFERD

The Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 60,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.
2. Some 5,500 coloured slides covering a wide variety of subjects, sets of slides with lecture texts, and film strips.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually, and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations and book reviews; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public.

The annual subscription to the society is £15.00. The Composition fee for life-membership is £75.00 for those over 65 years of age, after 5 years' membership. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £18.00 and £7.50 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

All enquiries to the Secretary: Telephone 01-387 7495.

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR S. S. FRERE F.S.A.

The Society was formed in 1910 to promote the study of the archaeology, art, literature, and history of Italy and the Roman Empire down to about the year A.D. 700. It publishes annually the Journal of Roman Studies containing articles by leading scholars and reviews of recent publications. The Society also publishes Britannia, a journal of Romano-British and connected studies, which includes an annual survey of Romano-British excavations.

The Society maintains with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with the London University Institute of Classical Studies a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of slides and film strips. Members resident in or visiting the U.K. may borrow books and slides and consult books belonging to the Institute. Meetings of the Society are held in London and in other parts of the U.K. together with other societies. Triennial conferences with the Hellenic Society and the Classical Association are held in either Oxford or Cambridge.

Annual subscriptions. Members and Schools, £15.00 for either the JRS or Britannia (£26.00 for both). Institutions other than Schools, £16.00 for each publication. Students of U.K. and Commonwealth Universities £7.50. Life membership for members with five years' membership and of age 65 or over, £75.

All enquiries to the Secretary: Telephone 01-387 8157

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organises an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors over 30 branches, which arrange programmes of lectures and discussions and many of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is approximately 4,000. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions (annual subscription, £1.00; life subscription, for individuals only, £21.00). Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review, £13.00; Quarterly, £14.00; combined subscription £24.00). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £11.00. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by January 31st in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr G. R. Watson, Dept. of Classics, The University, Nottingham NG7 2RD.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price for members, £1.50 post free) and of the last issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1945-47 (price 60p, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association, including all Supplements to Greece and Rome, are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries, other than about membership and publications, should be sent to either of the Secretaries (Professor J. Percival, Dept. of Classics, University College, P.O. Box 78, Cardiff CF1 1XL, and Miss H. M. Jones, Crud yr Awel, 18 Valley Close, Pinner, Middx).

Contributions to the JOURNAL should be sent to Dr C. B. R. Pelling, University College, Oxford OX1 4BH. Good photocopies, not original typescripts, should be submitted, since contributions which are not accepted will only be returned to authors by special arrangement. For style of references to be adopted see JHS civ (1984) 287 (offprint available free from the Secretary, Hellenic Society, 31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP: 01-387 7495).

Books intended for review should be addressed to The Librarian, Hellenic Society,
