
Miscellany

Sir Martin Roth

Sir Martin Roth, Emeritus Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Cambridge, has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society.

The Communication Award

The Conference of Medical Royal Colleges Award for effective communication with patients, in association with BUPA is now inviting entries for the 1996 Award. Entries, which may cover any or all of the categories of the Medical Royal Colleges or their faculties, are now canvassed from Members and Fellows of the Colleges. They will be considered by a panel of lay and medical judges chaired by a medical journalist. The result will be announced, and the presentation made, at a ceremony at Lincoln's Inn on the 14 November 1996 (Award helpline: Ms Diana Garrett: 0171 290 3913).

New publications

The Mental Health Digest is an entirely independent publication, written for people with an informed interest in mental health. It offers summaries of articles selected from leading professional journals and is available for an annual subscription of £6. Further information: Barbara Kuper, Mental Health Digest Ltd, 77 Maldon Road, Brighton BN1 5BD (telephone: 01273 564 208).

Helping Children Cope with Stammering by Trudy Stewart and Jackie Turnbull is now available from Sheldon Press. Price: £6.99. Further information and Bookshop, Holy Trinity Church, Marylebone Road, London NW1 4DU (telephone: Laura Musgrove 0171 387 5282).

Talking About Anorexia by Maroushka Monro is also available from Sheldon Press (details as above) and is priced at £5.99.

The new publication Publicity for Mental Health Clinicians by Doug Ruben is now available from the Haworth Press, 10 Alice Street, Binghampton, NY 13904-1580, USA (telephone: (607) 722 5857 ext. 326; fax (607) 722 6362).

A new leaflet entitled Schizophrenia has been produced by the Royal College of Psychiatrists in association with the National Schizophrenia Fellowship. For single copies please send an SAE to the Royal College of Psychiatrists, 17 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8PG. For bulk orders contact Mary Ayres, also at the College, on 0171 235 2351 ext. 259.