Popular Music

EDITORS:

Keith Negus, University of London, UK
John Street, University of East Anglia, UK

Popular Music is an international multi-disciplinary journal covering all aspects of the subject - from the formation of social group identities through popular music, to the workings of the global music industry, to how particular pieces of music are put together. The journal includes all kinds of popular music, whether rap or rai, jazz or rock, from any historical era and any geographical location. Popular Music carries articles by scholars from a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives. Each issue offers substantial, authoritative and influential articles, topical pieces, and reviews of a wide range of books.

Popular Music Digital Archive 1981-1989

...is a repository of every single article published in the journal between 1981 and 1989, reproduced as high-resolution, searchable PDFs.

Tempo

Editor:

Calum MacDonald, Gloucestershire, UK

Tempo is the premier English-language journal devoted to 20th-century and contemporary concert music. Literate and scholarly articles, often illustrated with music examples, explore many aspects of the work of composers throughout the world. Written in an accessible style, approaches range from the narrative to the strictly analytical. Tempo frequently ventures outside the acknowledged canon to reflect the diversity of the modern music scene. Issues feature interviews with leading composers, a tabulated news section, and lively and wide-ranging reviews of recent recordings, books and first performances around the world. Selected issues also contain specially-commissioned music supplements.

Whilst it does not style itself as revisionist, the journal is guided by the principle that existing assumptions about twentieth-century music and the ways in which it has been and is currently studied should be rigorously examined and re-examined.

CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Books of enduring scholarly value

In the spirit of Cambridge University Press's continued commitment to innovation and enterprise, the Cambridge Library Collection launched in July 2009, making an initial group of 475 out-of-print books available again. Another 1,000 will follow by the end of 2009 and 3,000 titles a year will be added as the program continues.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, these books are carefully selected by experts in each subject area because of their scholarly importance or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines to capture the contents of each book. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high-quality standard for which the press is recognized around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely.

The Cambridge Library Collection will revive books of enduring scholarly value across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, science and technology.

Instructions for Contributors

Article submissions should be sent to:

Prof. Leta Miller
Editor, Journal of the Society for American Music
University of California, Santa Cruz
e-mail: jsam@ucsc.edu

Authors should submit materials electronically to the e-mail address above. The following documents should be sent: cover letter; abstract of no more than 200 words; article text in MS Word with list of references (.doc); musical examples (.pdf or .jpg); and figures (.jpg). Electronic images should be sent as separate low-resolution jpegs rather than being embedded in the text; ideally each image should be less than 1MB in size. (If the article is accepted, high resolution tiff or eps images will be required.) Only the cover letter should include the author's name, mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address. The submission itself should be anonymous throughout the text and notes. Articles should range from 5,000 to 10,000 words (excluding notes). Longer articles will be considered but may be edited for length.

Journal of the Society for American Music employs humanities style for citations, following The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition. Use footnotes for explanatory material that need not appear in the main body of the article. At the end of the article, provide a list of references cited. All musical examples, figures, tables, and appendices should be numbered and contain captions, and the text should indicate approximate placement by the use of a callout, e.g., <FIG. 1 ABOUT HERE>. Callouts should be placed on a new line after the paragraph in which the figure or example is mentioned. A separate list of captions should be included. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript. The cost of permissions and reproducing color illustrations will be the responsibility of the author. Upon acceptance of a submission, authors will be asked to assign copyright to the Society for American Music. JSAM does not review articles that are being considered for publication in another journal.

For additional information on preparing submissions, please visit <journals.cambridge.org/sam> or <www.american-music.org> to download a current PDF copy of the complete Instructions for Contributors.
