

S34-02

AUTOIMMUNITY IN TIC DISORDERS: WHERE DO WE STAND?

P. Hoekstra

Academic Center for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Groningen, USA

New findings on serum antibodies against pyruvate kinase and lysogangliosides plus cytokine data in children with tic disorders compared to healthy control children are presented. Also blood-based gene expression data related to autoimmunity in children with tic disorders are discussed.