Annual Meeting

March 31–April 3, 2004
Washington, DC

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Society is a professional association devoted to the study and use of law in international affairs. Membership is open to people of all nations, lawyers and nonlawyers, who are interested in the challenging problems of law and policy. Its large and diverse membership of some 4,000, drawn from nearly one hundred countries, includes scholars, practitioners, government officials, international civil servants and students.

Founded in 1906, the Society serves as a meeting place, forum and collegial research center, hospitable to all viewpoints in its meetings, publications and other activities. Publications include the American Journal of International Law, International Legal Materials, Studies in Transnational Legal Policy, the ASIL Newsletter, and reports and books produced by its programs of research, study and outreach.

The Society is a nonpartisan, tax-exempt, nonprofit corporation headquartered at Tillar House on Sheridan Circle in Washington, DC.

It is the policy of the American Society of International Law not to take an official position, by resolution or otherwise, upon controversial questions. The views expressed in the addresses, remarks and discussions delivered at its Annual Meeting and appearing in its printed Proceedings are those of the individual speakers and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Society.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Proceedings of the 98th Annual Meeting was available by advance subscription to ASIL members for: $85.00 for delivery within the United States and $95.00 for delivery outside the United States; and non-members for $105.00 for delivery within the United States and $115.00 for delivery outside the United States. ASIL members and nonmembers may subscribe to the Proceedings of future ASIL Annual Meetings through The American Society of International Law, P.O. Box 501193, St. Louis, MO 63150-1193. Back issues of this and other Proceedings are available from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14209-1987.

Authorization to photocopy items for internal or personal use (beyond that permitted by Section 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law), or for the internal or personal use of specific clients, is granted by The American Society of International Law for users registered with the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) Transactional Reporting Service, provided that the base fee of $5 per copy, plus 25¢ per page, is paid directly to CCC, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. For organizations that have been granted a photocopy license by CCC, a separate system of payment has been arranged. The fee code for users of the Transactional Reporting Service is: 0272-5037/01, $5.00 + 0.25. Educational copying is permitted.
