

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all non-Russian nationalities of the former USSR and national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated within the disciplinary and methodological contexts of post-Soviet and Europe-Asia Studies. Of central concern is the fate of the Balts, Ukrainians, Jews and the peoples of Central Asia and the Caucasus. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each issue are in-depth updates on the latest developments, some original documents, lists of the most recent publications from throughout the world and book reviews.

Submission of manuscripts. In general, articles should not exceed 30 pages in length (including references) of double-spaced text. They must be submitted in duplicate, with footnotes placed at the end of the text. The Modified Library of Congress system of Cyrillic transliteration should be used, and the University of Chicago Press Manual of Style should be consulted for purposes of style and footnoting. Where the subject matter refers to relatively recent events, please date your article.

All manuscripts are given to outside referees for evaluation in a process that assures anonymity. Decisions on publication are usually given within two months. During this interim, the editors assume the manuscript is not under consideration by any other journal. The editors reserve the right to edit all submissions. The final revised draft must be submitted on a disk (Macintosh/Microsoft Word only), with one double-spaced printout.

Upon publication, authors receive a complimentary copy of the issue of Nationalities Papers as well as 50 offprints of their article. Because Nationalities Papers is a journal in part supported by subscriptions, all authors are encouraged to join the Association for the Study of Nationalities.

Manuscripts will not be returned unless specifically requested and postage is provided. All submissions should be sent to:
