Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at http://www.apsanet.org/content_44375.cfm.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see http://www.apsanet.org/content_44360.cfm.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 13,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and Journal of Political Science Education.

APSA Congressional Fellowship for Political Scientists

Apply now for the 2018–2019 fellowship year

Apply Now!

Since 1953, the APSA Congressional Fellowship Program has brought more than 2,200 scholars and professionals to Washington, DC, to gain a hands-on understanding of Congress. Fellows begin their fellowship year with a comprehensive four-week orientation with leading congressional experts and policy leaders. Fellows then serve full-time placements of their choosing in the House of Representatives or Senate.

The fellowship year also includes:

- Winter and spring seminar series on Congress
- A trip to the district or state of a Member of Congress
- Optional study visits to Annapolis, Maryland, and Ottawa, Canada

QUALIFICATIONS: Applications are welcome from political scientists who have completed a PhD in the last 15 years or will have defended a dissertation in political science by November 2018. Candidates must be US citizens or permanent residents. The program is open to scholars in all subfields of political science who can show a scholarly interest in Congress and the policymaking process.

FELLOWSHIP YEAR: Orientation begins in November 2018. Office assignments run until August 15, 2019. Two optional programs precede the main fellowship year. Candidates may apply to take a course on Congress and Foreign Policy taught in September and October 2018, as well as apply for a fellowship through the William A. Steiger Fund to spend up to two months at the APSA Centennial Center carrying out a project in legislative studies.

STIPEND: $50,000 for the 9.5-month fellowship period, plus a travel allowance.

SELECTION: Preference is given to those who have not had extensive Capitol Hill experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: The application period opens in September 2017, and applications are due December 5, 2017. Applications must be submitted online and include:

- a detailed CV
- a 500-word personal statement explaining how the fellowship relates to professional goals
- the names and contact information for three professional references who have agreed to write letters of recommendation
- a writing sample
