

SANCTITY IN AMERICA

Most Rev. Amleto Giovanni Cicognani

A "must" book for the library of every Catholic who takes pride in Church and country, this treasury of historical data is now appearing in its third edition. A pageant of apostles, missionaries, founders of religious orders and members of religious communities passes vividly before the reader, beginning with the Jesuit martyrs and Catherine Tekakwitha and ending with Sister Miriam Teresa, extraordinary young novice of our own day. "About the best book known to acquaint Catholics with saintly persons who labored in their own land and might intercede for them with God." —Homiletic and Pastoral Review. 272 pp., $2.00.

Dept. 4-798

St. Anthony Guild Press
Paterson 3, New Jersey

Saint Bernardine of Siena College

Conducted by

The Franciscan Fathers

of the Province of the Most Holy Name of Jesus

A Liberal Arts College Offering Courses Leading to Degrees in Arts, Science and Business. Tuition
$8.00 Per Credit Hour.

Address: Dean of Admissions
Loudonville, New York