act of state doctrine, 141, 150, 152, 217 acte contraire doctrine, 58 African Commission of Human and Peoples Rights, 225–6 African Union, 230 Angola natural resurces as property of state, 73 Articles on State Responsibility. See under International Law Commission	foreign relations law, role of the Parliamentary Assembly in, 282, 290–5 controlling role, 292–3 prior approval for cancellation or withdrawal from treaties, 292 prior approval for ratification of treaties, 291–2 role of permanent Committees, 293–4 general constitutional and legal framework, 275–84
Berne Convention, 58	BiH and international law, 278–82
Blackstone, William, 25	internal organisation of BiH, 275–8
Bolivia, 73	shortcomings of current system, 282–4
Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH), 9, 19,	Office of the High Representative, 279–82
274–98	criticisms of, 281
Dayton Peace Agreement as constitutional	role and functions, 279-80 framework, 19, 274, 275	Brazil complexity of state organisation,	mixed economy constitutional democracy, 74
276	public monopoly for petroleum exploration/
Constitution interpreted as treaty under	exploitation, 73
VCLT, 278	Brexit, 365–7
criticisms of, 282–3	appeals to national liberation, 85
ECHR directly applicable, 278-9	challenges to United Kingdom's attempt to international law, and, 278–82	withdraw, 55
Office of the High Representative,	exercise of independent sovereignty, the
279–82	people, and, 364
Presidency, 277, 290–1	fight for sovereignty, as, 362 separation of powers, 276–8	Miller case, 148, 149, 346, 365–6 veto power over all essential decision- making, 277	parliamentary approval required for treaty withdrawal, 250 foreign relations law, 285-90	parliamentary involvement in Brexit
BiH Constitution, and, 283–4	negotiations, 148 field of scholarship as, 295–7	the people determining engagement with Foreign Policy Strategy, 286–9	world, 358
General Guidelines, 285–6	withdrawal from European Court of Justice
Kosovo, 289–90	jurisdiction, 361

Calvo doctrine, 73, 78 Chile	approval of treaties by Standing Committee of National People's Congress, 330–2
Augusto Pinochet, 61	common but differentiated corporations, 71	responsibilities as guiding principle, controlling conduct of, 82	325-6
dominance of transnational companies	Global Environmental Facility, in, 60–1	cooperation with, 333-4
nationalizations, 71–2	international environmental treaties, constitutional amendment, 72	legal status of, 334–8
President Salvador Allende	international law, traditional perspectives corporations as supranational force, 71	on, 321–3 manifesto of peripheral perspective,	South-South Cooperation Fund, speech as, 68-9	building, 334
nationalizations, 71-2	Huawei, 76, 80 postcolonial peripheral perspective, 63	legal status of international environmental speech attacking global economic order,	treaties, 334–8 60–1, 70, 76	direct application, treaty implementation sovereignty, 71–2	by, 337–8
China	execution by administrative measure, business and human rights treaty,	treaty implementation by, 337 supporting, 82	place of environmental agreements in corporations, non-liberal conceptions	Chinese law, 335–6 of, 80-1	transformation through legislation, treaty economic aggression/expansion, 75-6	implementation and, 336-7 emerging power, as, 76	state-owned enterprises foreign relations law	globalization of, 80 academic study of, 296-7, 318-20	invoking sovereign immunity in Chinese environmental diplomacy, 324-6	U.S. federal courts, 81 congruent basic legal principles of	civil law, 107, 142, 146, 345
Chinese/international environmental	deference to executive, 97 law, 326–8	rejection of doctrines of judicial debates on, 318-21	abdication, 142 environmental law and policy, 324-8	role of foreign states in domestic courts, 97
no field recognized as such, 317	climate change silence of Chinese law on foreign	China, 333 relations, 323-4	duty of care to citizens, 146 underdeveloped nature of, 321-4	Paris Agreement. See Paris Agreement on global environmental governance, 19,	Climate Change 317–39	United Nations Framework Convention on administrative organs involved in external	Climate Change, 25, 38, 39, 331 environmental relations, 328–9	Cold War, 128, 191, 197, 314
allocation of China's public powers in,	Colombia
328–34	Constitutional Court allocation of powers in cooperation with	BITs, 147, 347
global environmental institutions,	free, prior and informed consultation, 73
333-4	human rights, 74
allocation of powers on conclusion/	colonization/colonialism approval of international treaties,	British colonialism, 106
329–32	colonial hierarchies in privatized property approval of agreements by State	relationships, 70
Council, 332	Commonwealth and colonialism, 87–91

decolonization. See decolonization	two perspectives on foreign relations law, property rights, sovereignty and, 70	64-75 transnational corporations, and, 70	liberal foreign relations law from common law, 87, 90, 106, 107, 142, 345	centre, 64–7 countries preferring Roman law, 90	postcolonial perspective from periphery, deference to executive, 97	67–75
embedded common law and colonial	comparative international law continuity, 94–6	emergence of, 7
foreign affairs exceptionalism, influence	foreign relations law, and, 8, 29 of, 143	function of, 29
imposition of, 106–7	Comprehensive Economic and Trade India. See under India	Agreement between Canada and the role of foreign states in domestic courts, 97	EU (CETA), 4, 78, 173–4
Commonwealth	Conseil Constitutionnel jurisprudence on colonialism, and, 87–91	limitations of sovereignty, 17, 161–79 overlooking legal history, 89–91	constitutionality review of international foreign relations law of, 87–9	treaties before ratification, 163–5 comparative foreign relations law, 60–85	critical assessment of Conseil changing context-peripheral echoes in	Constitutionnel's decisions, 177–9 centre, 75–7 epistemic structure of liberal foreign	arguments built on case by case basis, 177 no guidance which treaties will be relations law, 65–7 liberal foreign relations law from	compatible, 178–9 centre, 64–7	droit des relations internationales and agency and legal subjectivity, 66–7 particular ideas defining perspective, 65	foreign relations law, 161–3 international engagements not compatible shaped by specific contexts, 65	with French Constitution, 168–77 sovereignty, understanding of, 65–6	CETA case, 173–4 peripheral perspectives on contemporary clauses running counter to Constitution, trends, 77–84 business and human rights, 82–4	171-2 essential conditions for exercise of hybrid foreign relations and state-owned enterprises, 80–1	national sovereignty, 168–9 essential conditions for exercise of rebalancing sovereignty and property in	national sovereignty jeopardized, foreign investment law, 77–9	3 7 7 1
postcolonial perspective from periphery	169–70, 171 agency and legal subjectivity, 71–2	habilitation clauses, 176–7
Allende's 1972 speech as manifesto	imposition of conditions, 173–4 jeopardizing rights and freedoms in of, 68–9	Constitution, 174–6
epistemic structures, 70–1	Statute of International Criminal Court experience of statehood after	case, 174–6 decolonization, 69	Treaty establishing a Constitution for · · ·	Europe case, 171–2
public ownership of natural resources, 71–4	Treaty of Amsterdam case, 171 regional integration, 74–5	Treaty of Lisbon case, 172 sovereignty, understanding of, 70	Treaty on European Union (Maastricht I) taking global comparisons seriously, 60–4	case, 169–70 foreign relations law embedded in different	Treaty on Stability, Coordination and varieties of constitutionalism, 63	Governance case, 173 liberal perspectives from centre, influence	limitations of sovereignty doctrine and its
of, 61–2	criticisms, 165–8
01, 01 2	Citacionio, 105 0

constitutional law. See domestic law	promoting economic democracy in, 84 constitutional values, 253, 353	Dicey, Albert Venn, 25, 366 sovereignty as placeholder for, 17, 212	domestic courts, 152 sovereignty, and, 363	control of executive and legislative in foreign controlimiti, 13, 150, 152	affairs, 14–15
Convention on the Elimination of	extraterritorial regulators, as, 83
Discrimination Against Women, 32	greater role in controlling executive in Convention on the Rights of Disabled	foreign affairs, 18
People, 32	implementation of international law, 7
Convention on the Rights of the Child, 32	judicial reach over foreign relations, courts, domestic. See domestic courts	expansion of, 141-4 customary international law, 368	judicial review, foreign relations and. See environmental impact assessments, 3	judicial review, foreign relations and jurisdictional immunity of states, 13, 153-5	global administrative law new actors excluded from formal	justiciability principles limiting capacity, 56 international law-making, 11	legal value of corporate human rights self-determination, 368	standards in litigation, 83–4 source of international law, as, 5	recognising parliamentary rights to participate in treaty withdrawal, 54-5 decolonization	role in extraterritorial protection of human continued economic dependence, 69	rights against corporate integration and disintegration of states in	misconduct, 82-3 course of, 4	sovereign immunity in US federal courts, 81
peripheral statehood, 69	domestic law, 2, 6 political independence, achieving, 70	asserting authority of domestic legal orders postcolonial law 'modernized' in image of	vis-à-vis 'the international', 7–8
Western law, 70	competence to conclude treaties, violation sovereignty over natural resources, 68	of, 2 deference, 132, 139, 237	courts. See domestic courts executive, to, 87, 97, 141, 142, 344	democratic legitimacy, need for, 5
ICJ, to, 154	executive, treaties and. See executive author-international institutions, to, 302	ity in entering and exiting treaties deference decreasing, 313, 316	foreign relations law, and, 9–10 treaty law's deference to domestic law, 56	granting international law domestic rank deformalization of international law, 11,	and effect, 3 18	human rights-conferring aspects of, 47 democracy, 6, 65, 66, 83	implementation of international law, 2–3 economic democracy, 84	importance of domestic procedures, 3–4 international law, and, 6	international law, and. See international law shareholder democracy, 84	and domestic law
Switzerland. See Switzerland	international legal instruments, effects of, 5 developing countries	internationally wrongful state acts, 2 binding treaty on business and human	national parliaments. See national rights, seeking, 82	parliaments
China financial support for 2030 Sustainable	not justifying non-compliance with Development Goals, 334	international obligations, 2 common but differentiated responsibilities	regulating competence to consent to as guiding principle in environmental	treaties, 49 governance, 325–6	domestic procedures, 14
non-binding commitments on climate	impact on international law foreign mitigation, 25, 31, 35, 38, 42, 43	relations, 18

importance of, 3-4 VCLT provisions, 51 international institutions paving increasing withdrawal, 53-8 analogous exemption for manifest attention to, 3-4 violations, 56-7 dualism, 12, 17, 114, 370-1 India. See under India constitutional restraints, possibility of, 58 executive's right to withdraw, 55 environmental law, international, See interparliamentary rights to participate, 54-5 national environmental law role of courts, 56 satisfying separation of powers European Convention on Human Rights procedures, possibility of, 58 (ECHR), 154, 168 Dayton Peace Agreement VCLT provisions, 53-7 breaches of ECHR obligations, 283 ECHR directly applicable to, 278-9 foreign act of State. See act of state doctrine European Court of Human Rights, 128 foreign investment, 66, 82 property rights of state-owned enterprises, 81 constitutional rights of foreign state-owned corporations, 81 quality of domestic decision-making influencing substantive review, 3 domestic effect of international investment law and arbitral awards in host rights of corporations, 75 European Union countries, 79 agency and legal subjectivity, 66-7 international investment arbitration, 4 autonomy of European Union legal investor-state disputes, 71-2 order, 172 jurisdiction and enforcement of arbitral Charter of Fundamental Rights of the awards, 78-9 European Union, 171 legal relations between foreign investors and host state, 77-8 Court of Justice, 75, 145, 361 foreign relations law of supra-national rebalancing sovereignty and property in foreign investment law, 77-9 entities, 28 France, See France role of home states in extraterritorial fundamental rights, 152-3 protection of human rights against Germany. See Germany corporate misconduct, 82-3 international law, and, 153 sovereign immunity, and, 81 legal personality, 172 sovereign wealth funds, 80 Paris Agreement on Climate Change, 37 foreign legal policy, 108-29 Poland consequences for international law, 119-25 decision-making, international law breaches of rule of law, 273 representation in European Council, and, 122 foreign legal policy shaping international referendums on treaty arrangements, 149 law, 120-1 rescue policies for Eurozone crisis, 44 violations of international law, 121-2 UK's departure from. See Brexit elements in determining, 113-15 executive authority in entering and exiting existing in relation to broader national treaties, 46-50 interest, 112-13 international law regarding executive power operating at interface of the domestic and international, 115-16 as sufficient, 47 ratification, 48-53 primacy of, 112-16 executive authority as incident of role and function of, 116-19 sovereignty, 48 foreign relations international law constraint on foreign exclusion from judicial scrutiny, 98-102 relations law, 50-1 global administrative law of. See judicial legislative approval of treaties, 48-9 review, foreign relations and global unilateral acts doctrine, 52-3 administrative law foreign relations (cont.)	scope, sources and functions, struggles with, hybrid foreign relations and state-owned	135-8 enterprises, 80–1	South Africa. See under South Africa

Poland. See under Poland	Switzerland. See under Switzerland proportionality, 149, 151	United Kingdom. See under United
South Africa. See South Africa	Kingdom
Switzerland. See under Switzerland	United States. See under United States foreign relations law	foreign relations law and international law, 2, bargaining tool, as. See foreign relations law	10–12, 343–54
as a bargaining tool	close linkages between, 29
Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH). See under	concurrent existence of, 4
Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH)	emergence of foreign relations law and China. See under China	relationship to international law, 25–9 foreign relations law as Ersatz international comparative foreign relations law. See comparative foreign relations law	law, 8, 12, 359–62 comparative international law, and, 8, 29	foreign relations law's effects on concord of Western peoples, as, 87–91	international law, 347-9
Commonwealth, foreign relations law	guiding questions, 1–6 ot, 87–9	international law's effects on foreign overlooking legal history, 89–91	relations law, 349–53 contemporary trends in. See under com-	missed encounters, 6–9 parative foreign relations law	proceduralization of interface of defining, 64, 88–9, 109, 182, 343–6	international and domestic law, 3-4 dimensions of encounters, 13–15	foreign relations law as a bargaining tool, domestic foreign relations law, 47	23-45 embedded in different varieties of	between real risks and bargaining tool, 37–42 constitutionalism, 63	conditions for, 43–4 emergence of, 25–9	emergence of foreign relations law and Ersatz international law, as. See under	relationship to international law, 25-9 foreign relations law and inter-	impact of foreign relations law on treaty national law	negotiations, 30-1
executive entering/exiting treaties. See	Obama administration and non-bindingness executive authority in entering and	of climate mitigation exiting treaties	commitments, 34–7 foreign affairs exceptionalism, 6	veto powers in treaty-making, 24 foreign legal policy as background to. See	foreign relations law, nature of, 9-10
Lacharrière, Guy Ladreit de	forum non conveniens doctrine, 150, 151
France. See under France	France
Germany. See under Germany	Conseil Constitutionnel global administrative law as analytical	constitutionality review, 163–5 approach to, 138–40	creation of, 163 hybridity as effect of, 12–13	margin of appreciation, 165
India. See under India	sovereignty, and. See Conseil international law, and. See foreign relations	Constitutionnel jurisprudence on law and international law	limitations of sovereignty judicial review, 95 f., 98, 114, 130 ff., 216, 219,	Constitution, 162, 300
237, 350	amendments to, 165 manifestation of exceptionalism, as, 6	International Criminal Court, and, 175–6 nature and meaning of, 1–2, 9–10, 24	international treaties, and, 163–5
Poland. See under Poland	sovereignty, 165–7 scholarly study of, 27–9	foreign relations law, 109, 161-2

de Lacharrière, and. See Lacharrière, Guy Ladreit de	UN Human Rights Committee, 3, 102 hybridity monism, 109	effect of foreign relations law, as, 12-13 primacy of international law, 109	hybrid character of foreign relations law, 2.
referendums, 166	hybrid foreign relations and state-owned Supreme Courts, 162	enterprises, 80–1
use of force, 299, 300	hybridity of international and domestic law
Friendly Relations Declaration	created by foreign relations law, 1–2 human rights and fundamental	, ,
freedoms, 368	immunity sovereign immunity. See sovereign
Germany	immunity
constitution and international legal order,	India relationship between, 27	common law, 86, 87, 102, 107
Constitutional Court, 44	borrowing from jurisdictions other than acta iure gestionis, 81	England, 102
constitutional protection of property, 81	inherited, 89 courts	Constitution, 86, 88, 89 controlling executive and legislative in	Article 51 and international law, 91-4 foreign affairs, 14–15	directive principles, 93-4 rejecting doctrines of judicial	independence, 94
abdication, 142	Supreme Court, 91, 95
US armed drone missions, 14-15, 130-1,	uti possidetis, 103–6
145–6, 155	dualism, 93, 94 legislature supporting foreign policy	exclusion of foreign relations from judicial approach of government, 44	scrutiny, 98–102 participation in EU, executive decision-	Sikkim case, 101–2 making and, 250	Supreme Court and UN Charter, 99–10 referendums, 149	executive, powers of, 92-4
state immunity, 13	foreign relations law, 86–107
global administrative law, 17, 130 ff.	concord of Western peoples, as, 87-91
Global Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular	Constitution and uti possidetis, 103-6
Migration, 11	foreign relations, exclusion from judicia global governance, 134, 138, 139, 158	scrutiny of, 98–102 courts, and, 135, 140, 158	principles, policy and law of Supreme institutions of, 67, 200	Court, 91–8
	Goa, 99–101, 102
Harvard Research, 49	independence, 94
human rights	international law in Indian legal system, 23
Beijing Declaration, 362	judicial review, 95–6
business, and, 82–4	executive actions, of, 98
Colombia, 74	Parliament, powers of, 92–4
domestic law, and, 47	Sikkim, 87, 101–2
European Union respect for fundamental	sovereignty remaining an important rights, 152–3	principle, 98
Friendly Relations Declaration, 368	Supreme Court, 23
indigenous peoples, 75	Constitutional superiority, 87
Latin America, 74	dissenting judgments and opinions, 91 migration, 11	embedded common law and colonial promoting implementation by domestic	continuity, 94–6
parliaments, 3	extradition of aliens, 96–8

India (cont.) international law, 91–4, 99–101	International Criminal Court, 128, 234 discontent of some African states with, 125 political questions doctrine, 101-2	French Constitution, and, 175-6 role and authority, 95	South Africa's attempted withdrawal. See
UN Charter, 99–101	under South Africa uti possidetis, 103–4	threatened collective withdrawal of African treaty-making	states from, 361, 363
role of executive, 44	United States, and, 351
uti possidetis, 87, 103–6	international environmental law constitutional perfecting of, 103-4	environmental impact assessments, 3, 353 declaratory perfecting of, 105-6	Montreal Protocol on Substances that indigenous peoples	Deplete the Ozone Layer, 337 constitutional land rights, 73	no harm principle, 3
human rights, 75	Rio Conference/Declaration, 325, 327 transnational corporations, and, 73	Stockholm Environmental Conference, individuals	317, 324
consequences of international legal	Vienna Convention for the Protection of the instruments for, 5	Ozone Layer, 337 protection of individual rights, international	international institutions and organizations, 3 law and, 6	deference to, 302
subjects of international law, as, 10	decreasing, 313, 316 informal instruments, 5, 11-12	far reaching implications of, 5 informal instruments/law, 205-10	new states, and, 70 compliance-monitoring, 204	paying increasing attention to domestic importance of informal instrument as	procedures, 3–4 criterion for democratic legitimacy,	secondary law creating, 5
205–6	subjects of international law, as, 10 informal international law superseding	international investment. See foreign formal international law, 199–200	investment informal law-making complicating	International Labor Organization relationship between sovereignty and	restricting withdrawal from treaties, 58 international cooperation, 181	international law
'legislative' informal instruments, 205	armed drone missions, 14–15, 130–1, nature of, 205	145–6, 155
participants, nature of, 208–9	comparative international law. See com-process, nature of, 209	parative international law rejection of, 209–10	deformalization. See deformalization of states as just one actor, 208	international law transnational corporations, and, 200	domestic constitutional principles, and, 6 treaties, and, 209	domestic law, and. See international law and international agreements	domestic law states not opting for, 11	environmental law. See international envirtreaties. See treaties	onmental law international comity, 141, 150, 151	European Union law, and, 172
International Court of Justice, 348	expansion of, 10–11
de Lacharrière, and, 111, 123	far-reaching implications of, 5 heads of state to be presumed competent, 52	foreign legal policy, and. See under foreign
India, and, 103–6	legal policy
Italian Constitutional Court, and, 153–5,	foreign relations law, and. See foreign rela-
349, 360	tions law and international law
state immunity, 13	international law as law, 369-72
** >	,,,,

nature and meaning of, 2, 10–12 new actors in, 181 populism, and, 355–8 privatization, 18 self-defence, 314–15 self-determination. See self-determination sources of, 5 states as main players in, 180 subjects of, 10–11 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 state decisions on use of force, implications for international law of,	bringing together foreign relations law and global administrative law, 135–40 global administrative law as analytical approach to foreign relations law, 138–40 legal standards used on the merits, 144–7 standing, 143–4 struggles of foreign relations law with scope, sources, and functions, 135–8 taxonomy of global administrative law of foreign relations, 140–58 interaction norms, 150–8 review norms, 141–50
311–15	Kaczyński, Jarosław, 269
international law and domestic law, 2-5	Kenya distinction between as doctrinal remnant, 5	minerals and mineral oils as public land, 73 distinction rooted in laws of treaties and state	Kosovo, 289–90 responsibility, 2	Kyoto Protocol, 25, 38 foreign relations law as bridge builder between, 29	Lacharrière, Guy Ladreit de foreign relations law as site of encounter, 4	background and experience, 111–12 hybridity of international and domestic law	La politique juridique extérieure, 108–29 created by foreign relations law, 1–2	assessment of, 125–9 international law not deferring to domestic	consequences for international law, law, 47	119–25
proceduralization of interface between,	elements in determining foreign legal
3-4, 14	policy, 113–15
role of domestic law, 8	foreign legal policy existing in relation to states' implementation of international legal	broader national interest, 112–13 obligations, 2–3	foreign legal policy operating at interface
International Law Commission, 2	of the domestic and international,
Articles on State Responsibility	115–16
State acts as internationally wrongful, 2	nature of, 110–11
Guiding Principles 2006, 52, 53	primacy of foreign legal policy, 112–16 unilateral acts doctrine, 52 VCLT, and, 54	role and function of foreign policy law, 116–19 investment. See foreign investment	strength of analysis of, 122–4
Iran	League of Nations, 51, 106
authoritarian system, 74	legal advisers
'Iran deal', 11	advice on torture or use of force, 128
mineral deposits as property of state, 73	de Lacharrière, as, 110, 111, 117, 123, 126, Italy	127, 128
state immunity, 13, 153-5, 349	international law, and, 127
use of force, 299	legal personality European Union, 172
judicial review, foreign relations and global	international legal personality, 10, 169, administrative law, 130–58	181, 200
administrativisation of jurisdiction and	liberalism
juridification of foreign relations,	dominant ideological influence, as, 65 economic liberalism, 76
1,50), 1,50 0	conomic nocianini, /0 liberal and postcolonial perspectives. See comparative foreign relations law liberal internationalism, 76 neo-liberal structural adjustment, imposing, 69 separation of economy and politics by domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 44, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force are role of international law of, 311–15 use of force are role of international law of, 310–15 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New Internation, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New Internation, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 foreign relations law, 86 Switzerland, in. See under Switzerland, 128 Switzerland, in. See under Switzerland, 25, 24–5 non-bindingness of commitments, 24–5 real risks and bargaining tool, 37–42 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President not, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers comparative foreign relations law liberal internationalism, 76 neo-liberal structural adjustment, imposing, 69 separation of economy and politics by domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190-1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306-11 use of force involvement in decisions on, 299-301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 Pakistan, 87 Pakistan, 87 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 11, 58 United States, 16, 3, 3, 34-7, 42-5 non-bindingness of commitments, 24-75 real risks and bargaining tool, 37-42 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Prinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272-3 Constitution, 252 Constitution of 1997, 257-64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254-69 international law and separation of powers, 254-69 international law and separation of powers, 253-4 foreign relations, 259-79 council of Ministers 1 aw, 19, 252-73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253-4 foreign relations, 259-79 independent of powers, 255-9-6 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 255-9-6 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in Europe		parallelism, 180, 182 liberal internationalism, 76 neoliberal structural adjustment, imposing, 69 separation of economy and politics by domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 200 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190-1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311-15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 506-11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299-301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 290 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 United States, 16, 31, 34-7, 42-5 non-bindingness of commitments, 24-5 real risks and bargaining tool, 37-42 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Count of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272-3 Constitution of 1997, 257-64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254-69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255-7 division of competences in foreign relations, 254-69 real risks and bargaining tool, 37-42 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Count of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272-3 Constitution of 1992, 255-7 Council of Ministers preciominance in foreign affairs, 257-9 separation of powers, 253-4 foreign relations, 256-4 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentariamism, 25	liberal and postcolonial perspectives. See neo-liberal structural adjustment, imposing, 69 separation of economy and politics by domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 non-bindingness of commitments, 24–5 real risks and bargaining tool, 37–42 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, 273–4 division of competences in foreign relations, 254–69 resolution, 292 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, 273–4 division of competences in foreign relations, 259–7 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Constitution of powers, 273–4 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 259–69 international law and separation of powers, 273–4 division of competences in forei	comparative foreign relations law	Paris Agreement on Climate Change, 11, 58 separation of economy and politics by domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 Margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 2099–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 Patistan, 85 Patistan, 87 Patistan, 15	liberal internationalism, 76	United States, 16, 31, 34-7, 42-5 domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 withdrawal, 45 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 206–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 real risks and bargaining tool, 37–42 withdrawal, 45 Permament Count of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 ore of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 ore of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International law and separation of powers, 253–4 premament Count of	neo-liberal structural adjustment, imposing, 69	non-bindingness of commitments, domestic constitutionalism, 66 Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 withdrawal, 45 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 206–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 real risks and bargaining tool, 37–42 withdrawal, 45 Permament Count of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 ore of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 ore of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International law and separation of powers, 253–4 premament Count of	separation of economy and politics by	24-5

Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190-1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311-15 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299-301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 nopinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 withdrawal, 45 Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272-3 Constitution, 252 Constitution of 1997, 257-64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254-69 international law and separation of powers, and, 253-4 small Constitution of 1992, 255-7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257-9 division of competences in foreign relations, 254-69 Constitution, international law and separation of competences in foreign relations, executive powers in, 254-69 Constitution of 1992, 255-7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257-9 division of competences in foreign relations, 254-69 Constitution of 1997, 257-64 duality, 254 executive powers, 253-4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254-69 Constitution of 1997, 257-64 constitution of 1997, 257-64 constitution of 1997, 257-7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257-9 separation of powers, 253-4 foreign relations, 259-76 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257-64 constitution of		real risks and bargaining tool, 37-42
Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NCOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Permanent Court of International Justice, 10 domestic law, 46 Pinonchet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution, 252 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rational	Locke, John, 25, 131, 364 margin of appreciation, 150, 165 Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 360–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 domestic law, 46 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers, 2754–69 international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign af	., ., ., ., ., ., .
Mexico, 211 Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 100, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Pinochet, Augusto, 61, 152 Poland authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution, 252 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, 274–69 international law and separation of powers, 275–4 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, 273–4 foreign relations, executive powers in foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers, 274–69 international law and separation of powers, 275–4 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 constitu	margin of appreciation, 150, 165
Constitution, 68 state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 254–69 aluality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–6 constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers, 257–9 division of competences in foreign relations, 264–69 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 273–4 foreign relations, executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–6 constitution, international law and separation of powers, 273–4 foreign relations, executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 fo state ownership of natural resources, 73 Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 366–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 260, 273 Pakistan, 87 authoritarianism, movement towards, 272–3 Constitution, 62 spatial and separation of poy7, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 small Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations asparation of powers, 254–69 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 269–72 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 constitution, international faw and separation of powers, 269–72 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 constitution, international faw in provents in foreign relations, 269–72 constitution of 1992 and relations, 269–72 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 204–6 constitutional role of Pr Minamata Convention on Mercury, 41, 332 monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 209–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 Constitution, 252 Constitution of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, 273–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 274–69 international law and separation of powers, 254–69 constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 274–69 constitution, international law and separation of powers, 275–7 division of competences in foreign relations appraison of powers, 275–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 constitution, international law and separation of powers, 275–4 foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers, 254–69 Constitution, international fairs, 257–9 constitution, international fairs, 257–9 constitution, international fairs, 257–64 constitution of 1992 and relations, 269–72 constitution of 1997	, monism, 17, 109, 114, 370 Montreux Document, 209 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations. See transnational corporations. See transnational corporations authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 209 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 monison of 1997, 257–64 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of powers, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–69 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–69 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–69 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentary in foreign affairs, 257–9 revecutive powers in foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 264–6 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentary in foreign affairs, 257–9 representation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 260–7 multinational corporations. See transnational corporations national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 duality, 254 executive powers, 254–69 international law and separation of poyers, President and, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign relations asparation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers. President/Council of Ministers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 257–9 revecutive powers, President and, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 division of competences in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, Presidentons, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President multinational corporations. See transnational corporations mational parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 mational parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 269–72 division of competences in foreign relations executive powers in foreign relations, 264–6 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–9 oversitutional law and separation of powers, 269–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 259–63 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and d international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 foreign relations prespectations of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 foreign relations prespectation in powers, president and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, and, 253–4 foreign relations prespectation of powers, president and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, president and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, president and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, president and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations alaw, 10, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 powers, and, 253–4 small Constitution of 1992, 255–7 Council of Ministers predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 260–72 executive powers in foreign affairs, 257–64 constitution, 1907 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1907 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1907 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 19	=
national parliaments authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 parliamentary discourse, 100 notice of international law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 12 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 264–6 constitution of 1992, and se	corporations
authorisation of treaty-making, 190–1 earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Authorization foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign affairs, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PIS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers president/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PIS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 256–69 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 263–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentary in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 260–72 exe	national parliaments earlier information about imminent foreign policy decisions, 18 implementation of secondary law, and, 5 parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 opinio juris, 112, 121 predominance in foreign affairs, 257–9 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 ex separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, President and, 255–7 division of competences in foreign relations law, 19, 252–73 Constitution of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–7 division of competences in foreign relations parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 e parliamentary participation in foreign affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 parliamentary participation in foreign relations, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President (noreign affairs, 257–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–69 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–69 constitution of 1997 a affairs, 14 state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 affairs, 124 Constitution, international law and separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitution of 1997 and rationally onstitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign relations, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign relations, state decisions on use force, implications for international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 separation of powers, 253–4 foreign relations, executive powers in, 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 264–6 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional role of President in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–72 international law of, 311–15 use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 international law of, 311–15 254–69 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relati	· · use of force role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Dealing in the partial mentary activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Depinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign overlapping competences and duty to cooper role of international law in domestic parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 269–6 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 Table 4 constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in precise and duty to cooperate, 263– parliamentary discourse, 306–11 use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 Constitution of 1997 and rationally natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 269–72 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, use of force, involvement in decisions on, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 executive powers in foreign relations, 254–69 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, 299–301 natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 Constitution of 1997 and rationally modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, natural resources. See under sovereignty Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Pakistan, 87 modified parliamentarianism, 257–64 constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, Netherlands climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 Constitutional conflict over Poland's representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, climate change, duty of care to citizens and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 representation in European Council, 264–6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,	- · and, 146 Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Pakistan, 87 264-6 constitutional role of President in foreign affairs, 259-63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263-4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257-9 role of President in practice, 266-9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255-7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, Constitution, 300 use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, use of force, 299 deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers, 257–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 average affairs, 259–63 overlapping competences and duty to cooperate, 263–4 predominance of Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 role of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, deployment of forces abroad, 300 New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Declaration, 68 Replace of President in practice, 266–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 Opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, New International Economic Order, 72 Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, Allende's 1972 speech as milestone towards, 61 Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers in foreign affairs, 257–9 small Constitution of 1992 and separation of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, towards, 61 foreign affairs, 257–9 Declaration, 68 role of President in practice, 266–9 no harm principle, 3 small Constitution of 1992 and separation non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of	New International Economic Order, 72
Declaration, 68 no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,		predominance of Council of Ministers in no harm principle, 3 non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,	towards, 61	foreign affairs, 257–9
non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 181 of powers President/Council of Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,	Declaration, 68
Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,	no harm principle, 3	small Constitution of 1992 and separation
Ministers, 255–7 opinio juris, 112, 121 Law and Justice party (PiS), 269 Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations, Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,		Ministers, 255–7
Chair's power, 269, 273 Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,	opinio juris, 112, 121	Law and Justice party (PiS), 269
Pakistan, 87 Parliament's activities in foreign relations,
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	Pakistan, 87
- / /	,

control over Council of Ministers and	invoking sovereign immunity, and, 81
Foreign Affairs Committee, 270–1	original theories of, 131 declaration of state of war, conclusion of	Poland's breaches of, 273 peace and ratification of treaties,	principle of legality, and, 188–90
269–70	C II C
EU affairs, 271–2 President	Scelle, Georges, 109, 123 dédoublement fonctionnel, 7 constitutional role in foreign affairs,	secondary law, 5, 264
259–63	self-determination, 372 role in practice, 266–9	collective self-determination, 69, 70, 84 separation of powers, Council of	economic self-determination, 69, 284
Ministers, and, 255–7	hyperglobalization, and, 359 referendums, 270	India, Sikkim and, 102
populism	International Covenants, in, 371 exclusionary identity politics, key tenet	newly decolonized states, and, 119
as, 355	peremptory norm in international law, international law, and, 355–8	as, 358 sovereignty, and, 355–6	principle of international law, as, 367–9
Portugal	sovereignty, and, 181, 212, 363, 368
India, and, 99–101, 102	UN Charter, 367–8
postcolonialism	separation of powers, 10, 15, 65, 66, 83, 216 decolonization. See decolonization	BiH, 276–8
India, and. See India	distinctive feature of modern national liberation, 85	constitutionalism, as, 131
postcolonial constitutions allowing for	encompassing pushs and pulls, 83 nationalization of assets, 72	foreign affairs, in, 23 privatization, 18	withdrawal from treaties, 58 property disputes between investors and	Sikkim. See under India states, 77	soft law, 5, 11, 352 proportionality, 134, 141, 145	demands for hard participatory rights for, foreign relations, and, 149, 151	202–5 substantive ground, as, 141	development of soft participatory rights for,
United Kingdom. See under United	200-2
Kingdom	transnational corporations, soft law code of United States. See under United States	conduct for, 82 public international law. See international law	Solange doctrine, 139, 150, 152 reasonableness, 141, 145, 152	South Africa, 18, 215–38
substantive ground, as, 141	Constitution, 149
US courts, 151	Bill of Rights, 218 referendums	deliberative constitution, 217
European Union, 149	foreign relations, 216
France, 166	international law, and, 27
Germany, 149	Constitutional Court
legislative referendums, 48	Kaunda case, 217–19, 220–1
Poland, 270	SADC Tribunal case, 146–7, 215,
Switzerland. See under Switzerland	221–30, 361
United Kingdom, 364, 365	foreign relations, executive discretion in,
1 61	215–16, 217–37
rule of law, 10	Democratic Alliance cases, 230–7 foreign relations, and, 132	Kaunda granting very wide margin of international law, and, 6	discretion, 218

G 1 45: ()
South Africa (cont.)	whether indivisible, 362–69
SADC Tribunal case, 221–30	state responsibility, law of, 2
Grace Mugabe case, 215, 230–5	Articles on State Responsibility. See under International Criminal Court, attempted	International Law Commission withdrawal from, 55, 149, 235-7	state-owned enterprises legislature supporting foreign policy	constitutional rights of, 81 approach of government, 44	globalization of Chinese state-owned
Mandela administration, 18, 219	enterprises, 80
Mbeki administration, 219	hybrid foreign relations, and, 80–1
Ramaphosa administration, 238	property rights of, 81
Von Abo cases, 219–21	sovereign immunity invoked by Chinese
Withdrawal case, 149, 215, 235-7	state-owned enterprises, 81
Zuma administration, 216, 237	states mistrust of, 216	agreeing flexible non-binding sovereign immunity, 150, 152	instruments, 11
state-owned enterprises, and, 81	courts. See domestic courts sovereignty, 15, 65, 70	domestic law. See domestic law colonization, and, 70	executive entering/exiting treaties. See concluding treaties as exercise of, 167	executive authority in entering and Conseil Constitutionnel jurisprudence. See	exiting treaties
Conseil Constitutionnel jurisprudence	external relations. See foreign relations law on limitations of sovereignty	foreign investment. See foreign investment economic self-determination, and, 70	foreign legal policy. See foreign legal policy economic sovereignty, 71	heads of state to be presumed competent, 52 external, 131, 358	impact of domestic politics on international hybrid foreign relations and state-owned	negotiations, 30–1 enterprises, 80–1	international community (of states), as part internal, 131, 132, 358	of, 8 international tribunals, and, 361	main players in international law, as, 180 liberal foreign relations law, in, 65–6	not opting for binding international natural resources	agreements, 11
foreign relations law, and, 71-3	regulatory autonomy, 5
UN Declaration on Permanent	role in extraterritorial protection of human Sovereignty over Natural Resources, 68	rights against corporate parliamentary, 148	miscondue, 82–3
placeholder for constitutional values, as,	state consent, 66
17, 212	state immunity, 13
popular sovereignty, 66	subsidiarity principle, 139, 150, 171, 271
populism and popular sovereignty,	Switzerland
355–6, 358	allocation of powers for treaty-making, primacy of, 112	democratisation and, 190–9
quasi-sovereignty, 75	concept of parallelism in Switzerland, limiting or legitimizing, 82–4	191–3 rebalancing sovereignty and property in	far-reaching democratic participatory foreign investment law, 77-9	rights, 193–7 self-determination, and, 181	reaction to legalisation of world politics, sovereign immunity. See sovereign	190-1
immunity	strong treaty focus, 197–9
state consent, 66	Constitution, 183, 188–90 treaties, and, 17	direct democracy as main feature of war powers, 243	constitutional system, 180, 193 changing attitudes towards, 63 foreign policy, 184-5, 201-2 horizontal separation of powers, 186-8 collective participation rights, allowing, 84 optional referendums, 206-7 colonization, and, 70 economic and political dominance of, 60-1 parliamentary approval for specific treaties, 191, 195-6 foreign investment. See foreign investment vertical separation of powers, 185-6 human rights, and, 82-4 democratic participation in international indigenous peoples, and, 73 law-making, 18, 180-212 informal instruments, creating, 200 allocation of powers for treaty-making, international law-making, and, 181 democratisation and, 190-9 internationalizing corporate obligations, foreign relations, towards normalisation failure of, 82 nationalization of assets of, 72 of, 188-90 informal international law-making, not possessing international legal 199-210 personality, 181, 200 foreign relations law, 182-90 quasi-sovereign status, human rights allocation of powers on foreign policy, obligations and, 83-4 185-8 role of home states in extraterritorial protection of human rights against nature of, 181-2 substantive guidance for conduct of corporate misconduct, 82-3 foreign policy, 184-5 soft-law code of conduct, 82 towards normalisaton of foreign relations, strong executive needed to confront, 71 188-90 UN Commission on Transnational whether exists, 182-4 Corporations, 82 informal international law-making, 199-210 Trans-Pacific-Partnership, 78 challenges in building new bridges, treaties, 180 bargaining tool in negotiations. See foreign demands for hard participatory rights for relations law as a bargaining tool Conseil Constitutionnel, role of, See soft law, 202-5 development of soft participatory rights Conseil Constitutionnel jurisprudence for soft law, 200-2 on limitations of sovereignty informal international law superseding domestic law regulating competence to formal international law, 199-200 consent to, 49 Migration Pact, 200, 201, 202-5, 207-8, entering and exiting. See executive authority in entering and exiting treaties 211, 363 parallelism, 180, 182, 197, 198 exercise of sovereignty, as, 167 concept of, 191-3 foreign relations law, treaties dependent referendums, 194, 203, 207 on, 46 granted if predefined criteria are met, 207 full powers doctrine, 53 mandatory referendums, 192, 196-7 impact of foreign relations law on treaty optional referendums, 191-3, 196-7, 206-7 negotiations, 30-1 Supreme Court, 184 informal agreements concluded by signature, 48 Transatlantic Trade and Investment law of treaties, domestic law, and. See under Partnership (TTIP), 4, 78 domestic law new actors excluded from formal transboundary movements and effects Basel Convention on the Control of international law-making, 11 Transboundary Movements, 331, 336 notification of consent, 49 Paris Agreement. See Paris Agreement on industrial sites, 3

Climate Change proliferation in, 197–8 ratification, 48-53

transformative constitutionalism, 74, 83 actors in international legal system, as, 10 transnational corporations, 63, 77 treaties (cont.)	procedural requirements on foreign executive authority as incident of	relations issue, 148 sovereignty, 48	use of force, 19 legislative approval of treaties, 48-9	failure of Security Council triggering unilateral acts doctrine, 52-3	domestication of decision-making, 307 significant reduction in number of treaties,	implications for international law, 311-15

198–9	Iraq, 302–3, 304, 309–10, 313 source of international law, as, 5	major military action requiring explicit sovereignty, and, 17	parliamentary approval, 303–4 states as main actors in treaty-making, 208	proportionality and necessity, 310-11, 316 VCLT. See Vienna Convention on the Law	role of international law in domestic of Treaties (VCLT)	parliamentary discourse, 306–11 veto powers in treaty-making, 24	role of MPs, 301–6, 309–11 violations, 121–2	Suez crisis, 308
widening scope of treaty-making, 48	Syria, 304, 305, 308, 311, 313 withdrawal, 53–8	War Powers Convention, 301, 307, 311, parliamentary rights to participate, 54–5	312, 313
pariamentary rights to participate, 34	War Powers Convention, birth of, 303–6
UN Charter, 99–101, 225	who has power, 302–15
domesticating decisions on military action,	United States impact on, 315	American Law Institute, 26, 369 self-determination, 367–8	Restatement (Second) of Foreign
UN General Assembly, 60, 230, 362, 367	Relations Law of the United States, 27
UN Security Council, 11, 248	Restatement (Third) of Foreign Relations
Al-Qaeda, resolutions on, 153	Law of the United States, 27, 29, 33 military intervention	armed drone missions, 14–15, 130–1, authorization as supplementary source of authority, 352	145–6, 155 China, 80 decreasing role in deciding on, 311–13 military intervention not authorised, 311	concerns about, 75–6
	Huawei, 76
Suez crisis, 308	state-owned enterprises invoking targeted sanctions, 5 use of force, failure to act in, 307	sovereign immunity in US federal courts, 81 unilatoral acts 52.2	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · unilateral acts, 52–3	Clinton administration 22 28 251 creating treaty obligations through, 351	Clinton administration, 32, 38, 351 international law being developed at domestic level, 316	congressional-executive agreements, 26, unilateral acts doctrine	32–4, 41 Constitution, 23, 25, 86, 346 full powers doctrine for treaties, and, 53	absence of process-based use of force, 316	requirements, 245
United Kingdom, 299–316	commerce, 242
act of state doctrine, 141, 152, 217	distribution of power in, 239, 241 big tech companies, concerns about, 76	international agreements, 241–2
Brexit. See Brexit	treaty-making under, 31–4 forum non conveniens doctrine, 151-2	uses of force, 241 parliamentary sovereignty, 148, 365–7	foreign affairs, 6 prorogation of Parliament (Miller (No 2)	foreign relations law, 109, 346 case), 366	approach to, 12, 150–1, 156
proportionality, 310–11	Byrd-Hagel Resolution, 38
referendums, 364	Congress, role of, 33, 45, 47
Supreme Court, 365–66	constraining treaty-making, 24 development of, 26	meaning of scope-based and distinguishing types of agreements,	process-based, 240 33-4	rise of process-based checks on Presidential executive treaty negotiations, 24-5, 31,	power, 244–50 34 -42 , 47	Presidential power in age of process-based history of, 7	checks, 242, 249-50 important tradition of, 10, 23	process-based checks grounded in manifestation of exceptionalism, as, 6	interface with international law, 6, originating in United States, 61	247-9

Presidential power in. See United States	process-based checks grounded in U.S.
foreign relations, checks on	domestic law and practice, 245-7
Presidential power in	scope of Presidential power, 239–40
Senate, role of, 32, 44	scope, process, and comparative practice, human rights treaties, endorsing, 32	250–1
International Court of Justice, and, 348	use of force. See under national parliaments;
	UN Security Council; United International Criminal Court, and, 351
Kyoto Protocol, 38, 39, 42	Kingdom
Obama administration, 24–5, 31, 32, 42–5, 251	uti possidetis, 87
non-bindingness of climate mitigation	India, and. See under India commitments, and, 34–7	V. O d. I. (T
Paris Agreement. See under Paris Agreement	Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties on Climate Change	(VCLT), ₄₇
political question doctrine, 34, 41–2	Art 46, 29, 58 courts reducing use of, 142, 143	defect in state's consent to be bound, 54 international agreements, 148	limited to internal law provisions on proportionality, 145	competence, 56
reasonableness, 151	manifest violations, 50, 52, 57, 351
sole executive agreements, 33-4, 39	never successfully pleaded, 30
Supreme Court, 23, 251	possibility of invalidity of international
Alien Tort Statute case law, 82, 151	agreement, 2 international agreements, 33	security of treaty obligations, 57 narrowing scope of act of state doctrine,	Dayton Peace Agreement, 278
150-1	domestic law not justifying non-compliance rejection of Chevron approach in foreign	with international obligations, 2 relations matters, 143	establishing international law constraint on reluctance to judicialize foreign affairs,	foreign relations law, 50–1 25, 43	international agreements, manifest violation withdrawal from treaties, 41	of domestic provision and, 2
Trump administration, 45, 80, 145, 247,	subsequent practice, 227–8, 229
249, 251	successive treaties, rules on, 229 use of force, 299	treaties applying throughout entire territory war on terror, 145	of parties, 353
United States foreign relations law, checks on	unilateral acts, creating treaty obligations
Presidential power in, 18, 239–51	through, 351 erosion of scope-based constitutional checks	withdrawal from treaties, 53–7, 350–1 on President's foreign relations powers,	notice periods, 54
	notice periods, 54
241-4	World Trade Organization 155 200 causes of rise in President's powers, 243	World Trade Organization, 155, 323
President's vast swathe of foreign affairs	Dispute Settlement, 4 powers, 241–2	7 1 1 0 1 0 1 40 scope-based limits, 243–4	Zuma, Jacob. See under South Africa

