Dialogue: Canadian Philosophical Review / Revue canadienne de philosophie

Published for the Canadian Philosophical Association/
L'Association canadienne de philosophie

Editors

Susan Dimock, York University, Canada

Mathieu Marion, Université du Québec à Montréal, Canada

Dialogue is the official journal of the Canadian Philosophical Association. Its purpose is to publish high quality peer-reviewed scholarly articles, book symposia, critical notices, and book reviews, in support of the Association's mandate to promote philosophical scholarship and education. It is open to contributions in all branches of philosophy and from any philosophical perspective. Readers include professional teachers of philosophy, graduate students, and others with an interest in the field.

Kantian Review

Editors

Howard Williams, Aberystwyth University, UK

Graham Bird, University of Manchester, UK

Richard Aquila, University of Tennessee, USA

Kantian Review publishes articles and reviews selected for their quality and relevance to current philosophical debate in relation to Kant's work. In recent times Kant's philosophy has influenced contemporary philosophers over a wide range of issues from epistemology, metaphysics and philosophy of science to moral and political philosophy, philosophy of religion, aesthetics and teleology. Kantian Review invites contributions to these debates along with original accounts of Kant's texts, and of the development of his thought in its historical background.

Philosophy

Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Editor

Anthony O'Hear, University of Buckingham, UK

Philosophy is the journal of the Royal Institute of Philosophy, which was founded in 1925 to build bridges between specialist philosophers and a wider educated public. The journal continues to fulfil a dual role: it is one of the leading academic journals of philosophy, but it also serves the philosophical interests of specialists in other fields (law, language, literature and the arts, medicine, politics, religion, science, education, psychology, history) and those of the general reader. Contributors are required to avoid needless technicality of language and presentation. Each issue contains an editorial on a topic of philosophical or public interest, and a 'New Books' section.

The institutional subscription includes two supplements and a subscription to Think.

Religious Studies

An International Journal for the Philosophy of Religion

Editor

Robin Le Poidevin, University of Leeds, UK

Religious Studies is an international journal devoted to the problems of the philosophy of religion as they arise out of classical and contemporary discussions and from varied religious traditions. Space is devoted to articles, of which more than 25 are published each year, and the journal also contains an extensive book review section, which includes review articles and book notes as well as normal-length reviews.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

All submissions to Episteme must be made through the ScholarOne Manuscripts site:
<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/epi>

Papers should be double-spaced: font in 12 point Times New Roman. Articles not longer than 12,000 words are desirable. Longer pieces may be allowed at the editor's discretion. All self-identifying marks should be removed from the article itself to facilitate blind reviews. Submitting an article to Episteme implies that it has not been published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission to publish any material of which they do not own the copyright. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and you will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Instructions for contributors can be found at: http://assets.cambridge.org/EPI/EPI_ifc.pdf
