Environmental Conservation

advocates timely action for the protection and amelioration of the environment of Man and Nature throughout the world. Topics range from pertinent case-histories of the past and present to rational use of resources, foreseeing ecological consequences, enlightened environmental policy, anti-pollution measures, low-impact development, environmental education and law, and ecologically sound management of all land and fresh water, sea and air, for the lasting future of Earth's fragile Biosphere.

The following are the main types of contributions which may be accepted for publication in this Journal:

- Policy-offering leaders on outstanding topics;
 - Survey articles on important aspects of its subject;
 - Research papers whether basic or 'confirmatory';
 - Case-history accounts of wide significance and interest;

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

All contributions must be in precise English and original, submission of a 'manuscript' implying that it is unpublished and is not being considered contemporaneously for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts (three copies, including one or two on light airmail paper) and allied materials should be sent to:

Prof. Dr Nicholas Polunin, Editor
ENVIRONMENTAL CONSERVATION
7 Chemin Taverney
1218 Grand-Saconnex
Geneva, Switzerland,

or to one of the Advisory Editors (listed above). There is a set of Instructions for Authors on the inside of the back cover of each issue: failure to follow these in reasonable degree may lead to, at best, protracted correspondence or return of a manuscript for re-styling before it can be considered or even refereed.

PUBLISHING AND SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

Environmental Conservation is published by Elsevier Sequoia S.A., Lausanne, for the Foundation for Environmental Conservation, with the collaboration of the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN), the International Association for Ecology (INTECOL), the International Society of Naturalists (INSONA), International Conferences on Environmental Future (ICEFs), World Council For The Biosphere-International Society For Environmental Education (WCB-ISEE), World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF), and others. It is covered in fifteen international indexing or abstracting journals emanating from Great Britain, the United States, Italy, and West Germany. The ISSN is 0376-8929.

Environmental Conservation is published quarterly, corresponding to the year's four seasons in the Northern Hemisphere.
