Crisis and Conflict in Nigeria

A Documentary Sourcebook 1966–1970

A. H. M. Kirk-Greene

These volumes of over 200 contemporary documents, accompanied by a detailed narrative text, provide the first close chronology of the four years of crisis and offer an essential basis for anyone wishing to make a scholarly and objective assessment of the events that led up to the secession of Biafra and the subsequent civil war. 'Mr. Kirk-Greene presents the public and private faces of the conflict, and the essential groundwork on which its history can be constructed'—The Times Volume I January 1966–July 1967 £4.25; Volume II July 1967–January 1970 £5.25

South Africa

Sociological Perspectives

Edited by Heribert Adam

The fifteen essays in this study deal with different aspects of the basic racial situation in South Africa; segregated groups and attitudes towards them; the power elite and its ideology; African nationalism; religion; education; urbanization and its effects; legal provisions; the labour market; and economic development. £3.50

The Nyoro State

John Beattie

Bunyoro was the oldest of the four traditional Bantu kingdoms of Uganda, which ceased to exist when the country was declared a Republic in 1967. This book deals with the nature and functioning of the Nyoro kingdom under Protectorate overrule a decade before independence; it is essentially a study of social and political change. 8 plates, 4 maps £3

German Missions in Tanganyika 1891–1941

Lutherans and Moravians in the Southern Highlands

Marcia Wright

Marcia Wright examines the formative period of Lutheran and the kindred Moravian Churches in the Southern Highlands of Tanganyika, paying special regard to missionary policies and Christianization as a factor in regional history. 8 maps £3.25 Oxford Studies in African Affairs

New Testament Eschatology in an African Background

John Mbiti

This examination of the theological and practical issues precipitated by the encounter between the New Testament and African traditional concepts, and the presence of Christianity in African religiosity, takes the Akamba people of Kenya as a case study. 1 map £2.25 Oxford Studies in African Affairs
