Anti-Bribery Risk Assessment A Handbook Edited by Dr Thomas Gruetzner, Dr Ulf Hommel and Dr Klaus Moosmayer

For the global economy, corruption is dangerous. The consequence is economic decay, not development. That's why corruption demands a truly global response, one that knows no limits on collaboration (US Attorney General Eric H. Holder at the OECD in May 2010). Although most countries use their best endeavours to reduce corruption within their jurisdiction, the effects of the measures taken still vary from country to country. This book undertakes the task of giving a compact overview of the legal framework and practices of implementation in more than 150 countries worldwide, based on a uniform questionnaire. The reports of about 50 countries with the highest turnover in foreign trade are provided in print; a CD-ROM with the unprinted reports is included in the book. The book is compact and comprehensive and the reports are easy to access.

Dr Thomas Gruetzner practises law with Baker & McKenzie in Munich. Dr Ulf Hommel works as in-house counsel and Dr Klaus Moosmayer as Chief Counsel, Compliance, both with Siemens, Munich.

Transnational Organised Crime in International Law Tom Obokata

"Rich with example and illustration and written in a light, direct, style, it will provide a lucid guide for practitioners, policy-makers and students to the largely untraversed territory of the international legal system set up to suppress transnational organised crime." Professor Neil Bolster, University of Canterbury, New Zealand.

There is extensive and detailed academic literature on the legal development of international crimes such as war crimes and crime against humanity. However, not much attention has been paid to other serious crimes, including narcotics-related offences, human trafficking and money laundering, which do not necessarily amount to international crimes in the traditional sense. The purpose of this monograph is to fill this gap and offer a critical analysis of developments in the field of transnational organised crime under international law.

International Commercial Disputes Commercial Conflict of Laws in English Courts, Jonathan Hill and Adeline Chong

4th Edition

This is the fourth edition of this highly regarded work on the law of international commercial litigation as practised in the English courts. As such it is primarily concerned with how commercial disputes which have connections with more than one country are dealt with by the English courts. Much of the law which provides the framework for the resolution of such disputes is derived from international instruments, including recent Conventions and Regulations which have significantly re-shaped the law in the European Union. The scope and impact of these European instruments is fully explained and assessed in this new edition.

Jonathan Hill is a Professor of Law at the University of Bristol. Adeline Chong is an Assistant Professor in Law at the Singapore Management University.

Aug 2010 896pp Pbk 9781841138510 £50 / US$100

Climate Change and Displacement Multidisciplinary Perspectives Edited by Jane McAdam

This book brings together a variety of disciplinary perspectives on the phenomenon of climate-induced displacement. With chapters by leading scholars in their field, it collects in one place a rigorous, holistic analysis of this phenomenon, which can better inform academic understanding and policy development alike.

Governments have not been prepared to take a leading role in developing responses to the issue, in large part due to the absence of strong theoretical frameworks from which sound policy can be developed. The specialist expertise of the authors in this book means that each chapter identifies key issues that need to be considered in shaping domestic, regional and international responses,

Jane McAdam is Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law University of New South Wales and Research Associate, Refugee Studies Centre, University of Oxford.

Developing Countries and the Multilateral Trade Regime

The Failure and Promise of the WTOs' Development Mission
Donatella Alessandrini

"This is a very welcome and original contribution to the field that should generate new discussions and understanding about the law of international trade." Antony Anghie, University of Utah

This book explores the way in which 'development' has functioned within the multilateral trade regime since de-colonisation. In particular, it investigates the shift from early approaches to development under the GATT to current approaches to development under the WTO. It argues that a focus on the creation and transformation of a scientific apparatus that links forms of knowledge about the so-called Third World with forms of power and intervention is crucial for understanding the six decades long development enterprise of both the GATT and the WTO. The book is both topical and necessary given the emphasis on the current round of negotiations of the WTO.

The Law of MERCOSUR

Edited by Marcílio Toscano Franca Filho, Lucas Lixinski and María Belén Olmos Giupponi

The Law of MERCOSUR presents both an overview and in-depth analysis of one of the world's most important and increasingly influential economic organisations. The book is comprised of two types of chapters: the first is a series of first-hand analyses of the treaty by experts from countries in the MERCOSUR bloc, the second a series of discussions from other parts of the world looking at MERCOSUR as a global actor of ever-increasing importance. Original in its conception, the book covers a major gap in the English-language literature by offering a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the law of MERCOSUR, and will become essential reading for both practitioners and academics interested not only in MERCOSUR, but in economic integration generally, international trade, and regional aspects of the phenomenon of globalisation.

Marcílio Franca Filho is Visiting Professor of International Economic Law of the Faculty of International Relations of the State University of Paraíba (Brazil).

Lucas Lixinski is a PhD Researcher at the European University Institute, Italy.

María Belén Olmos Giupponi is an Assistant Professor of International Law and European Union Law at Universidad Rey Juan Carlos.
