

Note from the Editors

We would like to apologize for several mishaps that occurred in the last issue. First, the pages of the book reviews by Nükhet Sirman and Ellis Goldberg were inadvertently transposed. We are republishing these two reviews in this issue. Secondly, in the List of Contents, Arzu Öztürkmen's first name was misprinted. Finally, we regret that the title and number of the journal did not appear on the spine of the volume.

This issue includes two dossiers. The first, Population and Migration, includes articles by F. Shorter, S. Mutlu, K. Kirişçi and S. Shami. The second, Historiography, contains articles by M. Todorova, M. Miroiu and N. Necipoğlu. A preliminary version of Todorova's article was presented at a conference held in Binghamton, in September 1994, entitled "Historiographies of the Ottoman Empire". Miroiu's article was also initially presented in Binghamton, at a workshop on Balkan Studies. We hope to publish more such dossiers in the future.
