Cambridge is one of the world's leading publishers of research in classical studies, with a list that covers all aspects of enquiry into the ancient world.

Our books are at the forefront of the discipline and have been recognised for their broad-ranging, thought-provoking scholarship.

Our publishing spans the full range of classical enquiry and pedagogy: critical editions of ancient texts, commentaries, literary and historical analysis, classical archaeology, theoretical perspectives, reception studies, course texts, companions and source books.

The objects of the Society are the furtherance of Classical studies in general, and in particular the discussion and publication of critical research into the languages, literature and civilisation of ancient Greece and Rome. It meets to hear academic papers around eight times each year, and publishes The Cambridge Classical Journal (formerly Proceedings of the Cambridge Philological Society) and Supplements to CCJ.

Anyone interested in the ancient world is eligible for membership. Annual subscription for individuals costs £14/$28 (including online access to CCJ and its archive) or £20/$38 (online access and hard copy). Members also receive notice of the Society's meetings, and may purchase Supplements and back-copies at discounted rates. Applications for membership, and all other correspondence relating to the Society, should be addressed to The Treasurer, Cambridge Philological Society, Faculty of Classics, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge, CB3 9DA, or to philological@classics.cam.ac.uk. Institutional subscriptions to CCJ are handled by Cambridge University Press: see the inside front cover for details.

Supplements to CCJ is an occasional series designed to accommodate monographs of intermediate size, in the region of 80,000 words. Proposals for volumes to be published in this series should be addressed to Dr Christopher Whitton, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, CB2 3AP (clw36@cam.ac.uk).
