

INTERNATIONAL LAW: 100 WAYS IT SHAPES OUR LIVES

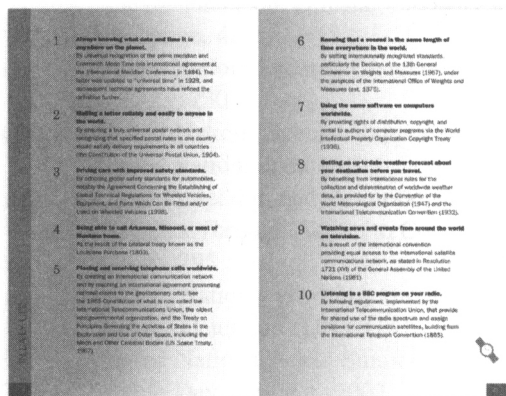

Many find international law abstract and static. Topics such as war and peace or relationships between countries are considered by some to be not so much questions of law, but of power and influence. Others question the existence of international law.

International Law: 100 Ways It Shapes Our Lives was conceived from the proposition that international law not only exists, but also penetrates more deeply and broadly into everyday life than is generally recognized. Some ways are of relatively recent vintage, while others are long-standing. 100 examples were identified by ASIL members, vetted by a smaller group of experts, and organized into seven chapters: 1) daily life; 2) leisure; 3) travel; 4) commerce 5) health and the environment; 6) personal liberty; 7) public safety and global security.

Join us in demonstrating how international law shapes our lives by

- Visiting 100 Ways at <http://www.asil100.org/ways.html>;
- Using it in teaching and general civic education programs;
- Adding ways to the list; and
- Sharing your experiences using International Law: 100 Ways It Shapes Our Lives.

We hope that this creative and interactive project will help demonstrate the diversity and the centrality of international law to our lives today.

The American Society of International Law

2007 Academic Partnership Program

The Power of Partnership

From the publication of our award-winning quarterly, the American Journal of International Law, to hosting the world's largest annual gathering of international law experts, the American Society of International Law has maintained strong partnerships with the academic community for 100 years.

Launched in ASIL's centennial year, the Academic Partnership Program will continue to enable academic institutions to partner with ASIL to promote their program in 2007.

Benefits of partnership include:

- Recognition at ASIL's Annual Meeting as an Academic Partner
- Recognition on ASIL's web site as an Academic Partner
- Two full-page advertisements per year in the American Journal of International Law
- Full-page advertisement in ASIL Annual Meeting program book
- Opportunity to partner with ASIL at the Annual Meeting, regional meetings at campus sites, and Tillar House events
- Opportunity to distribute program materials to ASIL members through a periodic electronic ASIL Academic Bulletin

This program is available for $5,000. To participate please complete and submit the attached application. For further information, contact Maria Staunton at mstaunton@asil.org or 202-939-6000.
