

THE SIR GEORGE HARDY MEMORIAL.

To the Editors of the Journal of the Institute of Actuaries.

DEAR SIRS,—By an oversight as inexplicable as it is unfortunate, for which I fear I alone am responsible, the name of Mr. A. Digby Besant was omitted from the list given, in the last issue of the Journal, of the Committee of the “G. F. Hardy Memorial Fund.”

Mr. Besant was one of the small group with whom the idea of the Fund originated. His counsel and assistance throughout the progress of the work, as a member of the Committee, were of the greatest value: and as one of the Honorary Secretaries of the Institute for the year he had a leading share in organizing the memorably successful meeting of January last.

I am afraid this belated acknowledgment can at best make inadequate amends for the omission; but it is all that is possible now, and will at least give the correction as wide a circulation as the mistake.

Yours truly,

S. G. WARNER.

28 September 1916.
