THE ASSOCIATION

The American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies is an international organization of persons interested in the Slavic and East European field. Regular memberships are $12.00 per year; sustaining memberships are $25.00 per year. A special student membership (without vote) at $5.00 per year is available to persons who are full-time students or students with teaching assistantships. (High postage costs, unfortunately, limit this special rate to those with U.S. mailing addresses. Students elsewhere may join as regular members.) There are also nonvoting associate memberships at $12.00 per year. Joint memberships are available for a married couple both of whom wish to join the Association but who need only one copy of the publications; both names will be listed, but the fee and voting rights are those of a single membership.

All classes of membership receive the quarterly Slavic Review; the annual American Bibliography of Russian and East European Studies (regular price $3.00), published yearly by Indiana University; the Association's Newsletter (regular price $1.50 per year in the United States and Canada, $1.80 abroad), published twice yearly at the University of Illinois; and the Directory of the Association (sold to nonmembers at $5.00) in the years when it is published. Application blanks are available from the AAASS, 1207 West Oregon Street, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois 61801.
