BULLETIN OF CONCERNED ASIAN SCHOLARS

A Quarterly Journal focusing on Social Change, Revolution, and Imperialism in Asia. Serious analyses of the major forces shaping events in contemporary Asia.

RECENT ARTICLES

Fred Branfman on the U.S. Air War in Laos.

Icnaga Saburo on Educational Repression in Japan.

John Dower on Nixon's "Asian Doctrine."

Cynthia Fredrick on the Cambodian Invasion.

Herb Bix on Japan's Growing Military-Industrial Complex.

Noam Chomsky on the Origins of WWII in the Pacific.

Al McCoy on America's Counter-revolutionary Land Reforms in Asia.

"THE BULLETIN

is a scholarly-political quarterly published by a nation-wide organization of Asia specialists who are convinced that professional expertise should be combined with ethical and political concerns. It provides the kinds of radical analyses that are too rarely produced in the field of Asia Scholarship."

Noam Chomsky
Franz Schurmann
