THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR LEGAL HISTORY

The American Society for Legal History is the professional association in the United States that promotes study, research, and publication in the worldwide history of law and legal institutions.

Members in the ASLH receive LAW AND HISTORY REVIEW, which is published in the spring and fall by the University of Illinois Press. Each issue features articles, essays, and commentaries by international authorities, and reviews of new and important books on legal history. ASLH members also receive the Society's newsletter and notices of meetings and conferences on legal history, including the Society's annual meeting, which is held each year in late October. Individual members are also entitled to a discount on the price of volumes in the series "Studies in Legal History," published for the Society by the University of North Carolina Press.

Membership fees: Institutions, $50.00 ($53.00 foreign); Individuals, $30.00 ($33.00); sustaining members, $50.00; sponsors, $100.00; students, $10.00, payable in US dollars.

An Economic History of the English Poor Law, 1750–1850

George R. Boyer

This book examines the economic role of the Poor Law in the rural south of England, presenting a model of the agricultural labor market that provides explanations for the widespread adoption of outdoor relief policies, the persistence of such policies until the passage of the Poor Law Amendment Act in 1834, and the sharp regional differences in the administration of relief.

36479-5 Hardcover $44.50

Making a New Deal
Industrial Workers in Chicago,
1919–1939

Lizabeth Cohen

“Cohen has dared to take for her subject the working class of a whole metropolitan area (Chicago)—an ambition that immediately sets this work apart from virtually every other interwar labor history written these last twenty years... she has woven aspects of ethnic and mass cultural history into her story of working-class formation in a manner that I have not seen done before. For all these reasons she may have the makings of a landmark book.”

—Gary Gerstle, Princeton University

38134-7 Hardcover $27.95

Roman Canon Law in Reformation England

R. H. Helmholz

In this book one of the world's foremost legal historians draws upon the evidence of the canon law, court records and the English common-law system to demonstrate the extent to which, contrary to received wisdom, Roman canon law survived in England after the upheavals of the Protestant Reformation.

Cambridge Studies in English Legal History

38191-6 Hardcover $44.50

The Corporation under Russian Law, 1800–1917

A Study in Tsarist

Economic Policy

Thomas C. Owen

This study analyzes the legal framework imposed on corporations by the imperial Russian Government. It stresses the dual nature of the bureaucracy's policy toward modern capitalist enterprise: encouragement for the sake of economic development, and regimentation in the interest of maintaining autocratic control.

39126-1 Hardcover $49.50

The Medieval Canon Law
Teaching, Literature and Transmission

Dorothy M. Owen

This study examines the teaching of canon law in Western universities, the choice of available textbooks, and the collections of legal books made by the University and colleges and by private individuals.

Sanders Lectures in Bibliography

39313-2 Hardcover $34.50

Reconstructing the Criminal Culture, Law and Policy in England, 1830–1914

Martin J. Wiener

“A break-through study that interprets criminal justice history by relating it to the bedrock of intellectual and cultural change... the book's preeminent value is in its range of discussion of and depth of insight into cultural issues... This book should have an impact well beyond the confines of criminal justice history.”

—Stanley Palmer,

University of Texas at Arlington

THE ASSOCIATION OF
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY PRESSES
D I R E C T O R Y
1990-1991

As an introduction and guide to the world of university presses, this directory will be an essential reference and resource to anyone who is, or wants to be, involved in scholarly publishing.

The Association of American University Presses has for over fifty years worked to encourage the dissemination of scholarly research and ideas. Today the 100 members of the AAUP annually publish over 7,000 books and more than 400 periodicals. This directory offers a detailed introduction to the structure and publishing programs of AAUP member presses. Among its useful features are:

- Information on 100 university presses in the U.S., Canada, and overseas
- Complete addresses, phone and fax numbers
- Names and responsibilities of key staff
- Subject area guide, with 136 categories, indicating which presses publish in a given area
- Advice for authors on the submission of manuscripts

LAW IN THE AMERICAN WEST

Practicing Law in Frontier California

Gordon Morris Bakken

"Magnificently researched. . . [He] has gone beyond social and biographical analysis to probe what lawyers did and how they did it." – Kermit L. Hall, author of The Magic Mirror: Law in American History.

Available May. $35.00

Federal Justice in California

THE COURT OF
OGDEN HOFFMAN,
1851-1891

Christian G. Fritz

"An excellent and well balanced work. It gives us a valuable picture of the flow of business through a federal trial court.

There are no competing or comparable books in the field."

– Lawrence M.

Friedman, Stanford University School of Law. Available April.

THE JOURNAL OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN ASSOCIATION

The only journal devoted exclusively to Lincoln scholarship, JALA is now published annually by the University of Illinois Press in cooperation with the prestigious Abraham Lincoln Association. The journal publishes selected scholarly papers presented each year at the Lincoln Symposium in Springfield, Illinois, and also features photographs and newly discovered Lincoln documents. Its "Lincolnia" section informs readers about new Lincoln books and articles, conferences, exhibits, and works in progress. A must for university and public libraries, and for anyone interested in the life and work of the sixteenth president.

Published annually in December.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited manuscripts, books for review, and suggestions concerning Law and History Review. Manuscripts should be submitted to Bruce H. Mann, University of Pennsylvania Law School, 3400 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104. The text should be typed, double-spaced, on 8½" x 11" paper with ample margins on all sides. Type on one side of the paper only. Footnotes should be typed double-spaced and separate from the text, and should conform to either the style found in the Chicago Manual of Style (13th ed.) or to A Uniform System of Citation (14th ed.); the Chicago Manual is preferred. Authors of accepted manuscripts should contact the editorial office regarding computer compatibility. Because of the commitment we ask of our outside referees, Law and History Review cannot consider for publication manuscripts that have been submitted to other journals. A submission to the Review carries with it the implicit promise that the author will not submit the manuscript elsewhere while it is under consideration by Law and History Review.
