CAMDEN FIFTH SERIES

Recent titles in the series

Camden Miscellany XXXIV

The Camden volumes, published by the Royal Historical Society, offer collections of skilfully edited primary source material for historians. The 'Camden Miscellany' collections contain a variety of shorter documents and papers. This volume contains text from the eleventh to the early fifteenth centuries concerning the Conquest, the Church and chivalry, together with a short chronicle. The texts are by Elisabeth van Houts, the late H. S. Offler (prepared for publication by A. J. Piper and A. I. Doyle), Jill Hughes, Maurice Keen and Mark Warner, Jeremy Catto and Linne Mooney.

The Plumpton Letters and Papers

Edited by Joan Kirby

This is a new and comprehensive edition of the only surviving northern medieval letter collection. Of particular value to social and legal historians, Joan Kirby's text contains a wealth of material unavailable to the editor of the 1836 edition. The collection offers a vivid portrayal of a northern knightly family during a period of decline in the military function of knighthood. Parochial, proud, violent and litigious, as Percy tenants and feed officials their fortunes fluctuated with those of their patrons. Two protracted lawsuits drew them deep into the complexities of the legal process and political patronage, and the resulting correspondence with their lawyers constitutes a unique source for northern history.
