CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to

THE EDITORS, THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES, at either UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DAR ES SALAAM, TANGANYIKA or UNIVERSITY PRESS, CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions (35s. net per annual volume of four parts, post free) are payable in advance, and may be sent to any bookseller, or to Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W.1. Subscribers in the U.S.A. should send their subscriptions ($6.50 per volume) to the Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York 22, N.Y.

The Somali Dispute

JOHN DRYSDALE

'Mr Drysdale brings qualities of dispassionate scholarship to his examination of the confused course of the border disputes between Ethiopia and the Somalis, and between Kenya and the Somalis.' Times Literary Supplement. 215.

South Africa: Crisis for the West

COLIN and MARGARET LEGUM

The Legums argue that international intervention in South Africa is inevitable; the question is by whom, for what purpose and with what results? The attitude of the Western nations on this vital matter remains in doubt. This book attempts to answer the many international questions posed today by South Africa. July, Cloth 35s., Paperback 12s. 6d.

Five African States Responses to Diversity

GWENDOLEN M. CARTER (Editor)

A comparative study of five states which, although extremely varied, have in common the element of strong internal divisions: the Congo (Leopoldville), by Edouard Bustin; Cameroun Federal Republic, by Victor T. Le Vine; South Africa, by Thomas Karis; Rhodesia and Nyasaland, by Herbert J. Spiro; and Dahomey, by Virginia Thompson. 65s.

The Maghreb Digest

North African Perspectives

Designed to fill the gap in current area studies research on North Africa, the Maghreb Digest provides a monthly review of political, economic, and social reporting on the Maghreb countries of Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia, and Libya. The review is based largely on a careful reading of the Arabic and French language periodicals of the Maghreb, supplemented by special reports.

Annual subscription rate: $12.00 (12 issues)
Sample copies available upon request

The Middle East and North African Program
School of International Relations
University of Southern California
Los Angeles, California, 90007

'The Digest . . . is a welcome aid to contemporary Maghreb studies. I recommend it highly.'—A. J. Meyer, Associate Director, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Harvard University.

GRIFF JONES

Britain and Nyasaland

A study of the political development of Nyasaland under British control, showing the peculiar circumstances which resulted in the British assuming control in the area, the establishment of the Federation, its failure and the abandonment of control in equally muddled circumstances. 36s.

EDGAR SIMPKINS AND
RONALD WRAITH

Corruption in Developing Countries

The ideals of independent nationhood are being marred by bribery, corruption and nepotism. The authors ask whether the experience of Britain in overcoming corruption in her own public life a century ago can throw any light on other people's problems. 'A fascinating study...vital for any student of history or politics today.' Liverpool Daily Post

Cloth 30s., Paper 20s.

RONALD WRAITH

Local Government in West Africa

It is little more than ten years since local government legislation was introduced to West Africa. The author describes how it has adapted itself to its environment and discusses some of its present and future problems.

'This is a wholly admirable book. I shall be surprised if anyone at all interested in local government will easily lay it down.' Municipal Journal

Paper 9s. 6d., Cloth 16s.

ALLEN & UNWIN

African Socialism

Edited by William H. Friedland and Carl G. Rosberg, Jr.

Eleven authorities on contemporary Africa examine African Socialism both as a general phenomenon and in its individual national forms.
