

Notes and News

International African Institute: Research Grants

GRANTS-IN-AID have been awarded by the Institute to the following:

Miss Virginia Adam (University College, London) for living expenses during a six-month writing-up period to complete her study of the Isanzu of Central Tanganyika.

Sister Mary Aquina (Manchester University) for living expenses and secretarial costs during a twelve-month writing-up period to complete her study of the struggle for political and economic power in the tribal areas of Rhodesia.

Mr. Ladislav Holý (Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences) for living and field expenses during a six-month period of research into the social stratification of the Berti in Darfur, Sudan.

Mr. Robin Horton (University of Ibadan) towards the cost of field expenses for the completion of research on traditional religion among the Kalabari people of the Niger Delta.

Mr. Alexander Kyerematen (Ghana National Cultural Centre, Kumasi) for field expenses in Kumasi and for living expenses to cover a nine-month writing-up period in connexion with his study of Ashanti royal regalia.

Madame B. Le Cour Grandmaison for field expenses to complete her study of the effects of urbanization on the traditional role of women among the Wolof and Lebou of Cap-Vert, Senegal.

Mr. Denis Williams (University of Ife) for living and field expenses during a six-month period of research into Yoruba bronze art.

Research Grants for African Studies

THE Joint Committee on African Studies of the American Council of Learned Societies and the Social Science Research Council has made the following grants for research relating to Africa South of the Sahara:

Professor William Bascom (Berkeley, California): Ifa, the Yoruba system of divination.

Professor Renée C. Fox (Barnard College): a comparative study in the Republic of the Congo and in Burundi of socialization of African university students.

Dr. Arthur J. Knoll (Yale): German Imperialism in Togo, 1884-1914.

Professor Igor Kopytoff (Pennsylvania) and Dr. Jean Kopytoff (Swarthmore): anthropological and historical research in Ivory Coast, Senegal, and France, on the Lagoon area of Ivory Coast.

Professor René Lemarchand (Florida): the break-up of Ruanda-Urundi.

Professor Albert J. McQueen (Michigan): education, unemployment, and the future of Nigerian youth.

Professor Marvin P. Miracle (San Francisco): commerce in an urban area of Ivory Coast.

Professor Chandler Morse (Cornell): socialism and economic development in Africa.

Professor Benjamin Rivlin (Brooklyn College): Maghreb unity and pan-Africanism.

Professor Michael E. Sabbagh (Riverside, California): the geographical implications of separate development in the Republic of South Africa.

Mr. Darius L. Thieme (Library of Congress): Yoruba village musical practices.

A Carnegie travel grant has been awarded to The Revd. F. E. Banim, Rector, Pius XII College, Basutoland, to study recent discoveries relating to early man in East and Southern Africa.