

Editorials

- What are Royal Colleges for? R. E. Kendell 721
 Too many patients; too few psychiatrists. D. Storer 724

Original papers

- Assessment of psychiatric teaching: examining examinations.
G. Livingston, S. Cox, C. Katona and M. Robertson 726
 The psychotherapy department and the community mental health team:
 bridges and boundaries. J. Holmes 729
 Survey of community mental health teams.
N. Mauthner, S. Naji and J. Mollison 733
 Patients' knowledge of their lithium therapy.
J. Anderson and K. Sowerbutts 740
 Medication refusal among patients treated in a community mental health rehabilitation service. R. Macpherson, M. Alexander and W. Jerrom 744
 Model of forensic psychiatric community care.
M. C. Whittle and M. D. Scally 748
 New eating disorder service. H. R. Millar 751
 Twenty-eight years of liaison psychiatry at a general hospital.
A. J. Carson, H. Dawson, D. Marshall and K. Slatford 754

Evidence-based psychiatry

- How to appraise clinical guidelines. J. P. Warner and R. Blizard 759

Trainees' forum

- Psychiatric training in Italy. L. Whitney and J. Bruce 762

Briefings

- Retired consultants and other career grade psychiatrists returning to work in the NHS. Department of Health 764
 Autonomy and automations: managed care in the USA. K. McKenzie 765

Personal view

- 'The Health of the Nation': suicide. J. Crammer 769

Correspondence

771

The College

- The Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting, June 1998 773
 Belgrave Square in the 19th century. M. Harcourt Williams 782

Miscellany

784

Forthcoming events

inside back cover