That Inferno

Conversations of Five Women Survivors of an Argentine Torture Camp

Munú Actis, Cristina Aldini, Liliana Gardella, Miriam Lewin, and Elisa Tokar

Translated by Gretta Siebentritt • Foreword by Tina Rosenberg

"This is a book about a hallucinatory form of torture—unique in the annals of repression—that took place in the 1970s in the Mechanics School of the Argentine Navy. That navy—the most exclusive, sophisticated, and gentlemanly of the armed services in a country that prided itself on being the most cultured and civilized in Latin America—ended up running a torture chamber that became the most notorious in Latin America's history. How this could happen is now somewhat easier for Americans to understand after Abu Ghraib." —TINA ROSENBERG

This ground-breaking work recovers the voices of five women "disappeared" in Argentina's "dirty war."

Can Literature Promote Justice?

Trauma Narrative and Social Action in Latin American Testimonio

Kimberly A. Nance

A Choice Outstanding Academic Book of 2007

As if in direct response to The New Yorker's question of "The Power of the Pen: Does Literature Change Anything?" Kimberly Nance takes up the relationship between ethics and literature. With the 40th anniversary of the testimonio occurring in 2006, there has never been a better time to reconsider its role in achieving social justice.

Mexico, From Mestizo to Multicultural

National Identity and Recent Representations of the Conquest

Carrie C. Chorba

"Significant and timely" —WILLIAM BEEZLEY, UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

This is the first interdisciplinary study of literary, cinematic, and graphic images of Mexican national identity from the Quincentennial commemoration in 1992 to the turn of the millennium. The homogenizing, mestizophile national identity which pervaded Mexico throughout the past century had given way to official admission of Mexico's ethnic and linguistic diversity—or "pluriculture."

Instructions to Authors: See LARR home page for submission information (<http://larr.lanic.utexas.edu/>). Address all correspondence to the Executive Editor, Latin American Research Review, LARR Editorial Office, McGill University, 3715 Peel Street, Montreal, Quebec H3A 1X1. Manuscripts should be unpublished in any language and should not be under consideration for publication by any other journal. Please submit two dark, clear copies of your manuscript on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. All material should be typed double-spaced, with notes separately at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words, including references, notes and tables/figures. Please provide a word count including footnotes, endnotes and references. Papers that significantly exceed the 10,000-word limit will not be considered for review. Tables and figurative material should be kept to a minimum. Each page should be counted as the equivalent of 250 words to be included in the overall word count. Include an abstract of not more than 250 words. For all matters of style, especially format for notes and bibliographies, please consult the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

LARR is published three times a year, Spring/Summer/Fall by the University of Texas Press. All views or conclusions are those of the authors of the articles and not necessarily those of the editors, the University of Texas Press, The University of Texas at Austin, or The University of Texas System.
