New from INDIANA

Iran and the World

Continuity in a Revolutionary Decade

By Shireen T. Hunter

Although Iran's postrevolutionary foreign policy seems to have been shaped primarily by Islam, Shireen Hunter emphasizes the prevailing forces of continuity and shows that underlying geopolitical, historical, and economic considerations continue to dominate Iran's international behavior.

cloth $32.50 paper $14.50

Reaching for the Olive Branch

UNRWA and Peace in the Middle East

By Milton Viorst

The forty-year history of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency is an account not only of the Palestinian issue but of the whole Middle East and the suffering of more than a million refugees.

Distributed for the Middle East Institute

cloth $22.50 paper $8.95

Culture and Conflict in Egyptian-Israeli Relations

A Dialogue of the Deaf

By Raymond Cohen

Extensively illustrated from the historical record, this book demonstrates that Egyptian-Israeli relations before and after Camp David have been and still are dogged by problems of intercultural communication.

$27.50

Iran's Revolution

The Search for Consensus

Edited by R. K. Ramazani

The recent uproar over the publication of Satanic Verses focused again world attention on the fundamentalist Iranian Revolution. Six of the world's leading authorities here describe and analyze key aspects of that Revolution in a concise, clear, and readable volume.

cloth $27.50 paper $8.95

Opening the Gates

A Century of Arab Feminist Writing

Edited by Margot Badran and Miriam Cooke

"An impressive collection . . . The writings are arranged around the themes of awareness, rejection, and activism, and give strong voice to universally held yearnings that brush up against tradition. A valuable anthology that helps bridge the gap in feminist discourse on a global scale." —Booklist

cloth $39.95 paper $17.50

Children of Bethany

The Story of a Palestinian Family

By Said K. Aburish

"Children of Bethany is a welcome and articulate addition to the documentation of the Palestinian experience since World War I. It will enlighten not only those interested in the Middle East but anyone touched by the plight of dislocated populations."

—New York Times Book Review

$18.95

French Jews, Turkish Jews

The Alliance Israélite Universelle and the Politics of Jewish Schooling in Turkey, 1860-1925

By Aron Rodrigue

This book illuminates an important episode in the history of Sephardi and French Jewries, as they interacted through the Alliance Israélite Universelle, and draws important conclusions about the transformation of European as well as Middle Eastern Jewries in the modern era.
