BULGARIAN COMMUNIST PARTY BYLAWS: TRANSLATION

Dr. Ivan Sipkov, who has recently been appointed the new Chief of the European Law Division in the Law Library of the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C., U.S.A., has translated from Bulgarian into English the current Bylaws of the Bulgarian Communist Party (BCP). These bylaws were adopted at the 8th Congress of the BCP in 1962, and amended at the 9th and 10th Congresses held respectively in 1966 and 1971. The translation, together with a historical introduction by Dr. Sipkov and a text of the bylaws in Bulgarian, are published in a separate issue in the Library of Congress Law Library Publications series. It bears the 1980 publication date, and is available upon request from the Law Librarian, Law Library, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. 20540, U.S.A.

LAW LIBRARY NEWSLETTER IN SOUTH AFRICA

The Organization of South African Law Libraries has commenced the publication of a regular newsletter. Attractively designed, the OSALL Newsletter is a mine of interesting and valuable information. The bibliographic information about publications from the Southern region of Africa should be of special interest to law libraries in other parts of the world.

Mrs. L. Davis, an active member of the IALL, is the Editor-in-Chief of the OSALL Newsletter. Her address is:

P.O. Box 2439
Johannesburg 200
Republic of South Africa
(Telephone: Johannesburg 836-2811)

The cost of international subscriptions to the newsletter is R5 annually.
