THE BRITISH SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

Membership of the Society, which includes a subscription to The British Journal for the History of Science, is open to all persons approved by the Council of the Society and elected at an Extraordinary General Meeting. Details of the annual subscription can be found on our website www.bshs.org.uk or from the Executive Secretary at the address below. There is an Introductory offer for the first year.

The British Journal for the History of Science is the official organ of the Society. All correspondence on the contents of the Journal should be addressed to the Editor, Jon Agar, Department of Science and Technology Studies, University College London, London WC1E 6BT, email ucrjhea@ucl.ac.uk

Book reviews: Books for review should be sent to the Reviews Editor, Dr Adam Mosley, School of Arts and Humanities: History and Classics, Swansea University, Singleton Park, Swansea, SA2 8PP, Wales, United Kingdom.

BSHS publications: BSHS Monograph Series is designed to allow the publication of monographic studies in the history of science quickly and cheaply. Monographs 1–13 are available in digital form and can be downloaded for free via the BSHS website. Monographs 12–14 are available via a print-on-demand service.

Recent titles are as follows:

Images of the Earth: Essays in the History of the Environmental Sciences. Edited by L. J. Jordanova and R. Porter. Second edition. 1997. £17.

Science in Art: Works in the National Gallery that illustrate the History of Science and Technology. By J. V. Field and F. A. J. L. James. 1997. £15.

To See the Fellows Fight: Eye-witness accounts of meetings of the Geological Society of London and its Club, 1822-1868. By J. C. Thackray. 2003. £15.

The Society's magazine, Viewpoint, an informal publication, appears three times a year. It is free to members, £12.00 for institutions and UK non-members, 17.00 for overseas non-members from the Executive Secretary.

Administrative business of the Society is handled by Lucy Santos, Executive Secretary, British Society for the History of Science, PO Box 3408, Norwich, NR3 3WE. The Society is registered in England as a Limited Company (No. 562208) and is a Registered Charity (No. 258854). Email office@bshs.org.uk.
