INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

All manuscripts should be submitted in QUADRUPLICATE to The Review of Politics, Box B, Notre Dame, IN 46556. If the return of the manuscript is desired, a stamped, self-addressed envelope should be enclosed. All typewritten material should be double-spaced, including notes and quotations; photocopies of a good quality are acceptable. The Review follows the Chicago Manual of Style for standards of citation, punctuation and other editorial considerations. The normal length of manuscripts published is 25–30 pages. Longer manuscripts will be evaluated in light of the limited printing space available. Since manuscripts are evaluated anonymously they should not bear the author's name or institutional affiliation. Submissions should be sent with an ABSTRACT of 100–150 words. All correspondence regarding book reviews should be sent to Dr. Sharon L. O'Brien at the above address.

NEW & NOTEWORTHY FROM MISSOURI

The Confederate Constitution of 1861

An Inquiry into American Constitutionalism
Marshall L. DeRosa

DeRosa argues that the Confederate Constitution was not, as is widely believed, a document designed to perpetuate a Southern "slaveocracy," but rather an attempt by the Southern political leadership to restore the Anti-Federalist standards of limited national government. 192 pages, $32.50 (cloth) $14.95 (paper)

Plato's Political Philosophy

Prudence in the Republic and the Laws
Zdravko Planinc

In this major addition to Platonic scholarship, Planinc offers a bold new interpretation of the Republic and the Laws. Arguing that scholars have misread these works for many years, he refutes the common conception of Plato as a political idealist and challenges conventional interpretations of two of the most influential works in the history of Western civilization. 304 pages, $37.50

Tradition and Authenticity in the Search for Ecumenic Wisdom

Thomas Langan

Our emerging world system is bringing the great traditions and cultures it has spawned into ever more intimate and dangerous contact. Langan argues that we must struggle toward a unity of discourse respectful of genuine experiences of varying civilizations if we are to live peacefully on one planet. 248 pages, $35.95
