

Financial History Review

Published for the European Association for Banking and Financial History

Editor

Stefano Battilossi, Universidad Carlos III Madrid, Spain

Associate Editor (North America)

David Weiman, Barnard College, Columbia University, USA

Increasing to 3 issues per year in 2011

Established in 1994, Financial History Review has earned a solid international reputation as an academic journal committed to research of high scholarly standards. The Review deliberately seeks to embrace a broad approach to financial, banking and monetary history, which appeals to a wide audience of historians, economists and practitioners. We welcome different perspectives including analytical narratives, theoretically-inspired research, advanced empirical analysis, and the interrelations between history, finance, policy, culture and society.

FHR is keen to provide a global perspective on national and international financial history and publishes research articles dealing with any historical period and country or regional area. The Reviews, through its section "The Past Mirror", is also an assiduous advocate of the relevance of history for a proper understanding of present financial and monetary developments, and no less importantly for informed and educated policy responses to them.

Revista de Historia Económica - Journal of Iberian and Latin American Economic History

Published for Instituto Figuerola de Historia y Ciencias Sociales, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Editor

Luis Bértola, Universidad de la República, Montevideo, Uruguay

Alan Dye, Columbia University, USA

Antonio Tena (Chief Editor), Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain

Revista de Historia Económica - Journal of Iberian and Latin American Economic History (RHE-JILAEH) welcomes contributions with comparative approaches, especially those that include a wide geographical or global coverage. The journal will promote the presentation of new topics, ideas and perspectives from the different social sciences, notably new historical and economic methods. RHE-JILAEH publishes original research papers on economic history, economic thought and all those areas of economics concerned with long-term analysis. The geographical area addressed in these papers should preferably cover Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries and wider areas including any of these countries.

JOURNALS

The Journal of Economic History

Published for the Economic History Association

Co-Editors

Price V. Fishback, University of Arizona, USA

Jean-Laurent Rosenthal, California Institute of Technology, USA

The Journal of Economic History is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of history and economics, and is of interest not only to economic historians but to social and demographic historians, as well as economists in general. The journal has broad coverage, in terms of both method and geographic scope. Topics include money and banking, trade, manufacturing, technology, transportation, industrial organisation, labour, agriculture, servitude, demography, education, and the role of government and regulation. In addition, an extensive review section includes the latest books in economic history and related fields.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Business History Review seeks articles drawn from rigorous primary research that address major debates and offer comparative perspectives. We consider the history of entrepreneurs, firms, and business systems, and the subjects of innovation, globalization, and regulation. We are also interested in the relation of businesses to political regimes and the environment.

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not currently under consideration elsewhere and that the material—in substance as well as form—has not been previously published.

Manuscripts should be submitted by e-mail to bhr@hbs.edu.

Authors of accepted manuscripts will receive a copy of the issue in which their article appears and a pdf file.

We encourage BHR authors to make their abstracts available on SSRN after the publication of their articles.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Authors must remember not to identify themselves in the body of the manuscript; specifically, references to their own work in the text should be in the third person, and citations should be written without possessive pronouns—not “See my . . .”

We use the 16th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (2010) and spell and hyphenate words according to Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary.

Send a bio of three to four sentences, stating affiliation and recent publications.

Be sure to include an abstract of no more than 100 words outlining the main point(s) of the paper and placing the article in context. Subheads should be used to divide the manuscript into three or four sections (or more, depending on length).

Articles should not be more than 10,000 words in length, including footnotes.

Each table and figure must be accompanied by a complete source.

When submitting figures, make sure images are in black and white and also include the data files. Tables should be prepared in a Word format to facilitate in-house editing.

Authors are responsible for obtaining all illustrative materials and permissions for reproduction, and for writing captions.

The journal encourages authors to use gender-neutral prose in all cases where it is not anachronistic to do so; male nouns and pronouns should not be used to refer to people of both sexes.

We use the day-month-year form for dates in citations, as 11 February 2007.

Double quotation marks should be used for journal article titles and direct quotation; single quotation marks are used for quoted material inside quotations.

SAMPLE CITATIONS

BOOK: Thomas K. McCraw, Prophet of Innovation: Joseph Schumpeter and Creative Destruction (Cambridge, Mass., 2007), 205–21.

JOURNAL: Naomi R. Lamoreaux, “Scylla or Charybdis? Historical Reflections on Two Basic Problems of Corporate Governance,” Business History Review 83 (Spring 2009): 9–34.

Note that we do not include the publisher in book citations. We do not use loc. cit., op. cit., or idem., but ibid. (not italicized) may be used.
