

Statement of the Chairman of the APSA
Constitutional Revision Committee

The Constitutional Revision Committee is preparing a major revision of the APSA Constitution for presentation at the 1970 Meeting. The felt importance of such matters, as evidenced in the pages of P.S. and at the recent Convention, has not led to a significant amount of correspondence from members of the Association to the Committee. The members of the Committee urge those concerned with the future structure of the Association to communicate their desires, advice, and wisdom to the Committee. Communications may be sent to myself or the members of the Committee listed below.

Notice from the Committee on the Status of Women in the Profession:

During the deliberations of the Committee, it has become apparent that in-depth studies about the role of women in the profession, in other professions, and in society cannot be completed by the Committee. Such studies could be of assistance to those concerned with these problems and to the Association when the final report of the Committee is presented. The Committee would like to encourage members of the profession to undertake such in-depth studies and thus voted in its September meeting to act as a clearing board for proposals for such studies. Proposers of studies which the Committee regards as worthy of support will be assisted by the Committee in locating suitable support.

Any one interested in submitting proposals of this type to the Committee please send them to Miss Mae King, APSA, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036
