EDITORIAL MATTERS

We are delighted to announce that Wlodek Rabinowicz of the University of Lund will be joining John Broome and Philippe Mongin as a third editor of the journal. We are equally pleased to announce that Christopher Morris of Bowling Green State University has become our book-review editor. Christopher replaces Margaret Schabas, to whom we should like to express our thanks for the excellent service she has done the journal for many years.

We should also like to thank our editorial assistant Ann Broome, and all the following people for generously giving their time as referees in the year up to July 1997.

Instructions to Authors

Submitted articles and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editors, Economics and Philosophy, Dept of Philosophy, Lund University, Kungshuset, SE-222 22 Lund, Sweden. Books for review in Economics and Philosophy should be sent to Professor Christopher Morris, Department of Philosophy, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio 43403, USA. Correspondence may also be sent by e-mail to: econphil@fil.lu.se.

The journal publishes papers in English only. However, the editors are willing to consider initial submissions in French, and advise the authors whether to resubmit an English version. The final decision will be made on the basis of the English version only.

Please send four copies of submitted articles, in double-spaced type. Please send any covering letter in duplicate. Include an abstract of one hundred words or fewer. We are pleased to receive copies printed on both sides of the paper. The copies sent to referees will be anonymous, so the author's name and address should appear on a separate title page and not in the rest of the article. Please also remove other clues to your identity. Repeat the title of the article at the beginning of the text to be sent to referees. Submitted articles will not be returned to authors.

Authors of accepted articles will be asked to prepare a final version in the journal's style, following instructions that the editors will provide, and to submit it on disk together with a version on paper.

Submitting an article to Economics and Philosophy implies that it has not been published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own the copyright. They will be asked to assign the copyright of their article, under certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press. Authors of articles will receive 25 offprints of their article free of charge; additional copies may be purchased if ordered at proof stage on the form provided. (In the case of joint contributions, offprints will be sent to the first named author unless otherwise requested.)

The Crisis of Vision in Modern Economic Thought

Robert Heilbroner and William Milberg

A deep and widespread crisis affects modern economic theory. The authors' analysis attempts both to describe this state of affairs, and to suggest the direction in which economic thinking must move if it is to regain the relevance and remedial power it now pointedly lacks.

Economic Analysis and Moral Philosophy

Daniel M. Hausman and Michael S. McPherson

This book discusses methods of economic evaluation in terms of welfare and other moral criteria, and examines how such techniques as social choice and game theory are relevant to philosophy.

The Correspondence of Alfred Marshall, Economist

Edited by John K. Whitaker

This three-volume work constitutes a comprehensive scholarly edition of the correspondence of the English economist, Alfred Marshall (1842-1924), one of the leading figures in the development of economics and the founder of the Cambridge School of Economics. The edition fills a long-standing gap in the history of economic thought with hitherto unpublished material.
