Notes should be numbered consecutively and grouped together at the end of the text. They should be typed paragraph style (each new note begins a new paragraph), double-spaced between lines as well as between entries. The style of citations in notes should conform with the following examples:

- 1 E. Ashtor, A Social and Economic History of the Near East in the Middle Ages (Berkeley, 1976), pp. 29–31.
- 2 S. D. Goitein, A Mediterranean Society, Vol. 1, Economic Foundations (Berkeley, 1967), p. 193.
- 3 Bruce M. Russett, "Delineating International Regions," in J. David Singer, ed., Quantitative International Politics (New York, 1968), pp. 45–68.
- 4 B. Shoshan, "Grain Riots and the 'Moral Economy' in Egypt 1350–1517," Journal of Interdisciplinary History, 10, 3 (Winter, 1980), 459–478.

When references to the same work follow without interruption use ibid. When references to the same work follow after interruption by other notes, use the author's last name and a short form of the title.

Figures (charts, graphs, and other artwork) should be in camera-ready form; they cannot be redrawn by the printer. Captions should be provided, and preferred placement of figures indicated in manuscript.

Copyediting and proofreading. The publishers reserve the right to copyedit and proof all articles accepted for publication. Authors will review their copyedited manuscripts only if changes have been substantial. Page proofs of articles will be sent to authors for correction of typographical errors only.

General. Authors receive 50 offprints of their article without charge; additional copies may be purchased if ordered at proof stage. Submission of an article implies that it has not been published elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to publish material for which they do not own the copyright. Contributors will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press. Books for review should go to the Review Editor for the appropriate subject area (see inside front cover for addresses), or they may be sent to the Editor (Peter von Siviers, Middle East Center, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112) for forwarding.

The Middle East Studies Association of North America, Inc.

This association was founded in 1966 in order to promote high standards of scholarship in the field of Middle Eastern Studies and to facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications. In addition to sponsoring the Journal, which is published for the Association by the Cambridge University Press, MESA publishes a Bulletin periodically, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other professional services for its members from time to time. Individuals interested in becoming members should write to: Headquarters and Secretariat, Department of Oriental Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721. Fees are as follows: Full and associate members $50.00; students $25.00. Fee includes subscription to International Journal of Middle East Studies, and to the MESA Bulletin and MESA Newsletter.

Members of the British Society for Middle Eastern Studies may subscribe to International Journal of Middle East Studies at a special rate of two-thirds of the present regular subscription price. Enquiries concerning membership in BRISMES should be sent to the Secretary, Dr. D. Hopwood, St. Antony's College, Oxford, England.

Notes for Contributors

Contributions and Editorial Correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Peter von Sivers, Middle East Center, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112. Authors should reserve one full copy of their manuscript for use in correcting proofs. Articles must be in English, should not exceed 12,000 words, and should be accompanied by a short summary. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation must be consistent within each article and conform with Thirteenth Edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

Preparation of Manuscript. A title page should be prepared carrying the article title, auxiliary short title (not over 50 characters), author's full name (in the form preferred for publication), and author's affiliation (including mailing address). The entire manuscript (including notes) should be typed double-spaced on 8 1/2 × 11 inch or A4 paper, with margins set to accommodate 70 characters per line and 25 lines per page, and should not exceed 43 typed pages. Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively.

Loanwords and Foreign Words. Loanwords (accepted English words such as ulama, alim, Shi'ite, sheikh, qadi, Sunni, and others) should be spelled in accordance with the first choice presented in Webster's Third New International Dictionary. Foreign words (not yet loanwords) must conform with the Journal's transliteration system; they should be italicized and defined at first use (and not italicized thereafter). Diacritics, except for ains and hamzas, should be omitted except where they are imperative to the argument. Authors who do use diacritics and transliteration have the total responsibility for consistency and accuracy in manuscript.
